A few of the men who created Big Red spirit are Mr. Wydrzynski our principal, and two of our assistant principals, Mr. Ufford and Mr. Lyszak. Their watchful eyes are constantly looking for ways to improve the educational experience of all Big Reds.

Our beautiful Homecoming Queen Lori Roberts stands with handsome John Palmer our Prime Minister.

This building known as Port Huron High School, provides the structure for our educational program.

One Hundred Fifteenth Annual

Many tears were shed in the month of June as the Seniors said farewell to Port Huron High School. Seniors are beginning a new life, things will change, but there is one thing they can always count on, their friends. Those friends brightened the night at the Senior Prom. It was a memorable night for all who attended the Prom at the SC-4 Student Center. Everyone was excited, yet afraid something would go wrong, but as you can see Theresa Shank, Scott Hayes,

Graduation

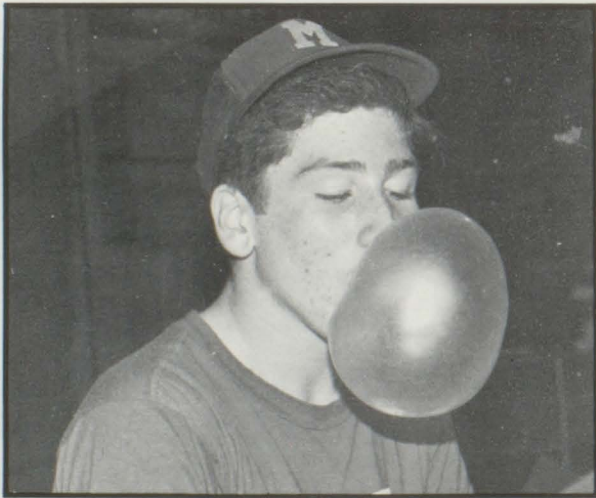

Margaret Gillihan, and Cliff Hawkins pictured center p.5 all had a great time.

Every year a Senior Assembly is held to honor the graduating Seniors. It was the final chance for the underclassmen to see the 1983 Senior class as a group. Bottom right p.5 Senior Ann Schultz hugs a fellow Senior after leaving the assembly.

Baccalaureate was held in Memorial Stadium Sunday afternoon, June 5 at 4:00. Reverend Paul Blomquist, pastor of the First United Methodist Church gave the address. The Big Red Marching Machine and the Choir performed at the ceremony.

The Grande Finale was the Commencement held at 8:00 on June eighth at the Mc Morran Sports Arena. Senior Beth Krenke hugs another Senior after the festivities while Alan Zieg, Cheryl Vass, and Kristy Stager compare diplomas in the Junior Sports Arena. The One Hundred Fifteenth Annual Graduation was another step in the grand tradition at Port Huron High School.

Seniors Bring Out

The Best at PHHS

Special Times

One of the biggest events of the school year was the Homecoming dance that was held on Saturday Oct. 8. There were approximately 300 students in attendance. The dance this year featured videos instead of a band. Many times while people were dancing, they were shown on the videos. The dance was better than it was last year. "The videos really made it," said Junior Laura Oakes.

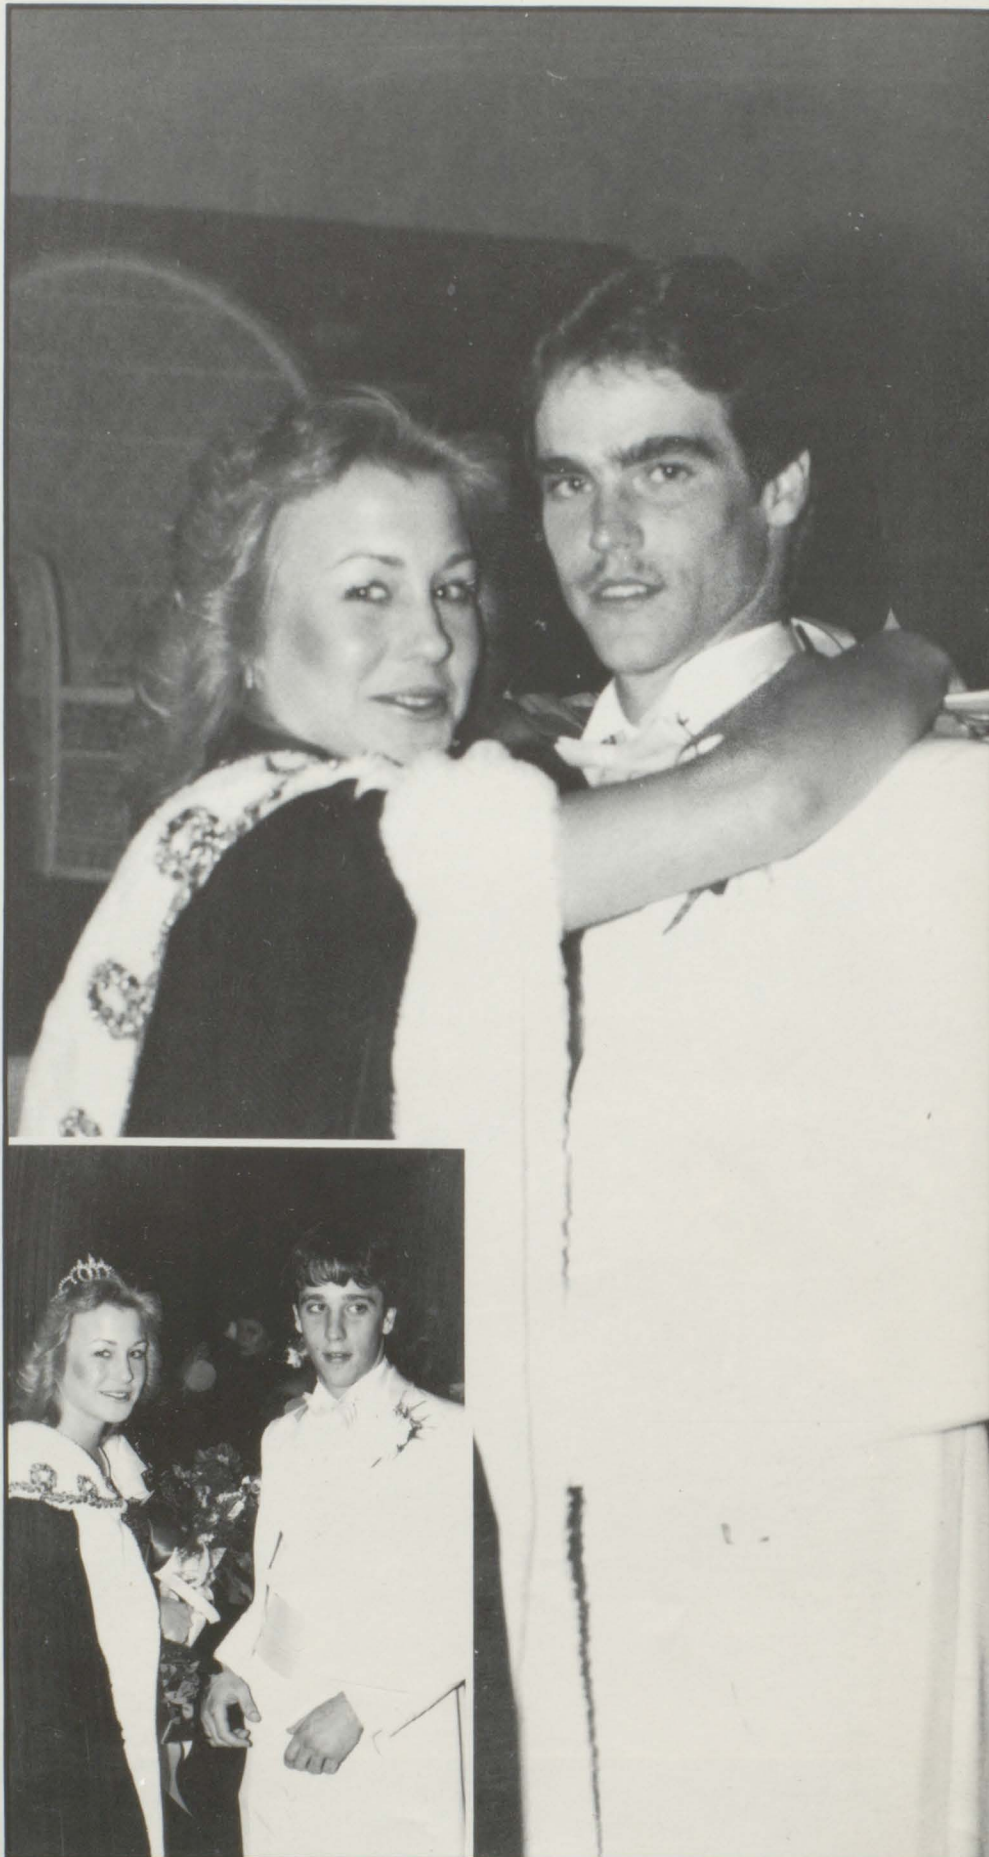

Around 10 o'clock people at the dance formed a pedestrian tunnel and the court & their escorts walked through. All the girls were on stage and our Prime Minister, Senior John Palmer, was getting ready to announce our new Queen. It was announced that Lori Roberts was our new Queen. "I was surprised when I made it for Queen!" said Senior Lori Roberts.

"The dance was great, I thought it was neat to see everyone on the video," said Junior Diane King. And the reason everyone liked the videos was because you could put messages on the videos, too.

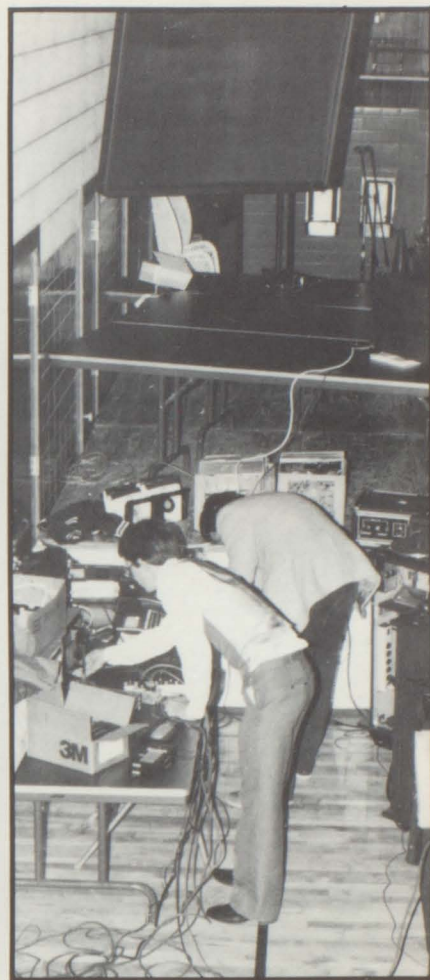

"It was really neat seeing all my friends dressed up," remarked Junior Mike Trapp.

The dazzling dresses and the distinguished suits made all the people who went to the dance look extra-spectacular. The dressed up crowd, the great videos and the announcement of the Homecoming Queen made the dance a special time for everyone.

Homecoming Queen Lori Roberts and Prime Minister John Palmer lead the Queen's Court in the first royal dance of the night. Below Lori is congratulated by her escort Gary Smith.

As the Lights Dimmed . . .

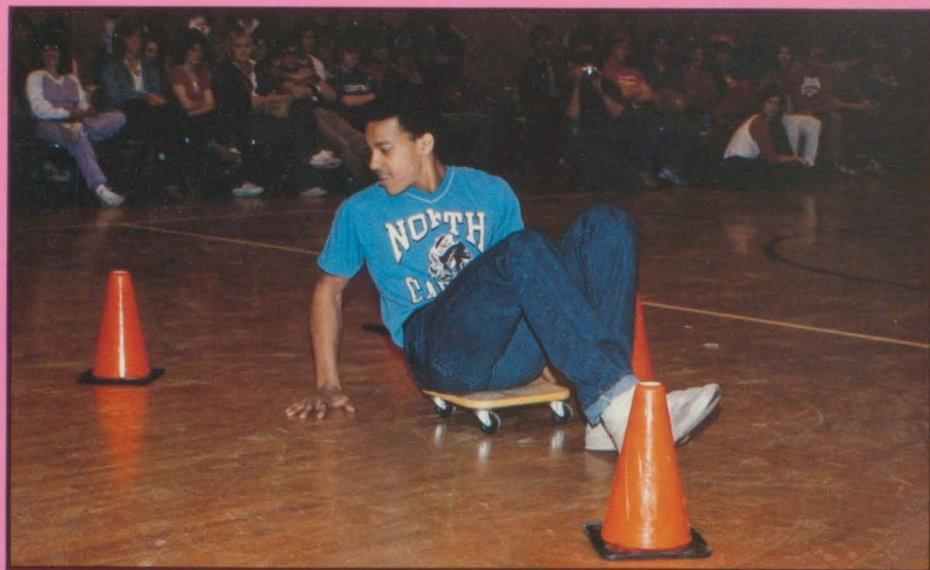

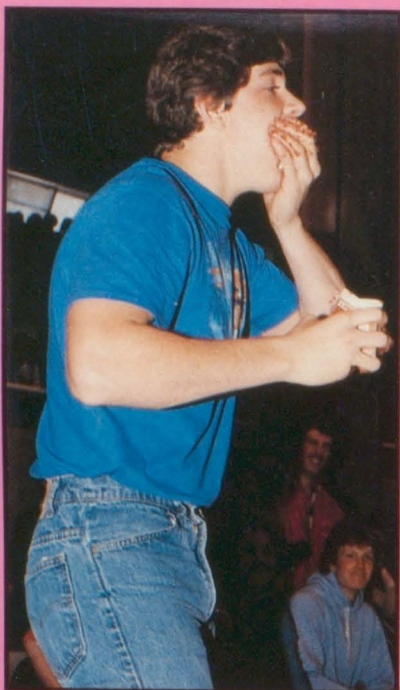

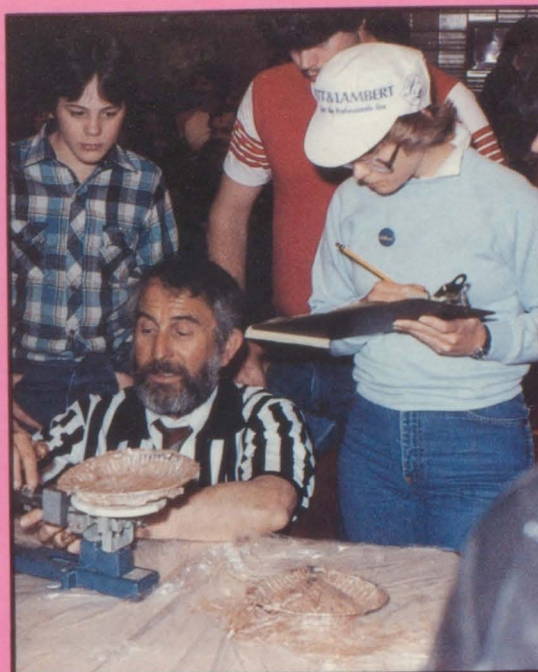

An unforgettable moment for the Homecoming court is the Regal dance, as the students of our school look on.

Before the actual beauty of the dance is reached, somebody has to do the work. Shown here is the mass confusion of preparing the brand new video machine.

All this work may not sound that glamorous, but as you can see from the bottom photo it was both glamorous and fun. If you missed the homecoming dance this year, we urge you to attend next year. It will be the best time you've had all your high-school life.

Spirit Fever Captured Forever

Zany outfits, funfilled festivities and a recess from the monotony of school best describes spirit week. The last few weeks of school are study, study, study. Final exams are just days away, and our minds are filled with facts we've learned all year. But wait! Relief is in sight! It's spirit week! On the final day of spirit week, we bring it all to a climax with a spectacular assembly. The Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors compete in the games.

Former Senior Jim Nutt wets our appetite with a furtive attempt to eat a Hostess pie faster than the digestive system works. Scott Damascke showed Junior strength, endurance, and speed in the dangerous scooter roll. Far left, Ron Leverenz represented the Freshmen class in this fashionable event and models his chocolate pie outfit. Above, Mr. Richards declared him a sure winner at the scale with Wayne Schatzberg, another Freshman agreeing, as former Senior Steve Phillips and Junior Maryann Kruse record his winnings. Finally, top right, this event is the balloon breaking contest, where balloons are tied around the waist and others must break them without using their hands. Juniors, Mary Crimmins and Julie Stone, joined together in a desperate attempt to save their balloons.

Time Off—Homecoming

Juniors Michele Pontack and Anne Briedenich struggle down the course for the three legged race.

Freshman Freeman Franks, Sophomore Bob Bennett, Junior Tammy Zinzo and Senior Steve Emery try to inhale more hamburgers than their other opponents.

Junior Janette Kulka attempts to catch an unbroken water balloon. Luckily, she succeeded.

Senior Colleen Mullins has a disgusted look on her face as she catches an egg for the egg toss.

Overall the Juniors took 1st.

The sun was shining—ALMOST as bright as our spirits! It was the Fall games—annual homecoming spectacular. The juniors triumphed over all, much to the disappointment of the other classes. As freshman Dyanna Lathrop put it, "I was pretty embarrassed that we lost!"

Winning the water balloon game started the Juniors off as they took the lead. Sophomores caught up fast by winning the hamburger eating contest. The seniors made it a three way tie as they won the egg toss. The tug of war and three legged race were swept by the Juniors. The sophomores finally took the wheel barrel race.

"The student games make homecoming something more than just a football game and a dance. They show student involvement and bring the kids closer together," remarked Mr. Burgess.

Comics Brighten

The theme for this year's homecoming parade was comic strips. Each class chose a character and constructed a float involving that character. The Seniors chose Garfield, that crazy cat in the comic strip by Jim Davis. The Junior class decided on Hagar the Horrible, the fierce viking in Dik Browne's comic strip. The Sophomores did "Animal" the wild drummer from The Muppets by Jim Henson. The Freshmen did jolly Winnie the Pooh from the cartoon by A.A. Milne.

The Seniors stepped into third with Garfield and Odie. "Garfield was built in the Chickonowski's boat house off Strawberry Lane. The Seniors spent many moons in the construction of Garfield and Odie."

The Freshmen and Winnie the Pooh took fourth place. This is the first Homecoming float for the freshmen and they spent many nights building "Pooh".

The Roosevelt Little Reds and the Chippewa Braves joined in the festivities of Homecoming with their trucks. In their hands lies the future of P.H.H.S. The student councils of both schools constructed their floats to the exacting standards of their student bodies. Thanks to both schools.

Big Reds Year

The Sophomores showed the upperclassmen how to do it with their winning float "Animal" from the Muppets. Animal was built in Cal Miller's warehouse on Michigan Road. Many hours were spent in the construction of this float. The class of '86 is proud of Animal because they were the first class to have the first place trophy other than the senior class in six years.

The Juniors and "Hagar the Horrible" sailed away with second place. "Hagar" was constructed in Kim Mercurio's barn on Michigan Road. Many weeks were spent in the preparation of this float.

Special Times

The Freshmen show their rising spirit for the first time at homecoming. The truck was full of bubbling freshmen who built their float.

Dave Pardee shows senior spirit and Big Red pride as he rides in the truck dressed as our mascot the "Big Red Chief" for the '83-'84 school year.

Tina Clawson.

These beautiful nominees were paraded in front of the entire student body at an assembly held in the gym by the Student Council to help students make their decisions for homecoming court.

To be elected homecoming queen is many girls dream. There are three steps taken to prove that dreams don't happen overnight. First homerooms nominate two girls from their class that they think would best represent them. Then the top vote getters become nominees. Next each class votes for their candidates from the list of nominees. After the voting is done the ballots are tallied up and the girls with the most votes are appointed to the homecoming court.

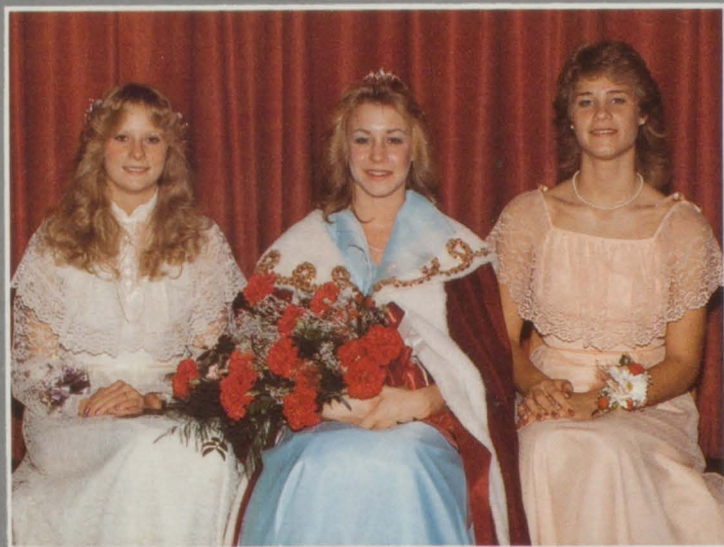

Elected Junior nominees for 1984 were: Pam Baird, Kris Hodge, Dawn Schneider, Leanne Brown, 2nd row: Kim Roberts, Kim Klebba, Connie Roberts.

Homecoming 83-84 provided surprises for many students. This years Senior court members all were new to the Homecoming Court. The elections for Prime Minister had new faces this year. In addition Junior Dawn Schneider made the court for the first time. This years court was: Top right—ninth grade Tina Clawson and Bridget Zinzo, Middle right—tenth grade Tina Dawson and Shelley Randall, Bottom right—eleventh grade Kris Hodge and Dawn Schneider, Bottom left—Homecoming Court, Tina Clawson, Shelly Randall, Lori Roberts, Colleen Mullen, Rosie Webster, Tina Dawson, and Bridget Zinzo. Below, Seniors Beth Webster and Lori Roberts have a laugh in the three-legged race at the Homecoming games.

A Moment Out of Time

Fall is one of the most beautiful seasons in this part of Michigan. Each year around this time the students at P.H. vote for Homecoming Court. There are two girls chosen from each class except for the Seniors where three are chosen to run for queen. The girls are chosen because of their looks, personality, and popularity. Student Council Advisor Mr. Burgess remarked, "As usual all of the girls were beautiful."

Sweat It Out Day

Spirit Week

Each year during Homecoming week Big Reds get dressed up in weird and wonderful costumes. Mr. Burgess and the Student Council determines what the dress-up days will be. Every day has a different theme. This year Monday was Pajama Day and Sweat-it-out Day, Tuesday was College shirt and Hat Day, Wednesday was Preppy and Punk Day, Thursday was Dress-up Day, and Friday was Red and White Day. Big Red students had a great time dressing up. Each day the students dressed up and then signed in with Mr. Burgess to represent their class. Student Council counted up the people who dressed-up for each class, and at the end of the week the class with the most points wins. The Seniors won. Second was a tie between Juniors and Sophomores. In last place was the ninth grade class.

Hat Day

Oh, How Styles Have Changed

Dress Up Day

Punk and Preppy Day

Red and White Day

Sophomores Kerrie Mullins and Jeff Harrington are proud of their school and show it by dressing up on Sweat it Out Day.

Junior Pam Hurt sits down for lunch in her stylish outfit composed of a plaid skirt, a V-neck sweater, blouse, and a knit tie.

Big Reds are shown what Big Red spirit is all about by their Big Red Chief, Dave Pardee.

Seniors Tadd Klettner, Cory Arnold, Todd Lawson, and Matt Frazer dress up on Hat Day, or are they really going to a Bowling Tournament?

Punkers Michelle Lyon, Tina Hamilton, and Laura Davis go all out for Preppy and Punk Day.

This year must certainly be one of the best for our students and staff at P.H.H.S. Many Big Reds have achieved various awards and titles throughout the year.

The Varsity football team had 3 impressive shutouts early in the season including the 41-0 homecoming victory against the Anchor Bay Tars. On Friday, September 23, the 1983-84 Varsity football team had another important victory to add to their list when they beat Mount Clemens 21-12. The Big Reds are able to proudly display the "Little Brown Jug" in the trophy case for a second year.

Football players, Calvin Nichols, Doyle Callahan, Dwan Lindsay, Tim Spear and Wendall Callahan are showing their excitement after winning the Brown Jug, for the second year after defeating Mt. Clemens in a come-from-behind victory.

Mr. Semelsberger added the title Athletic Director to his list of Department Head jobs which include the Science, Physical Education, Mathematics, and Special Education departments. Mr. Semelsberger and Assistant Principal, Mr. Ufford proudly display the "Little Brown Jug."

During the day of the Homecoming football game the students of Port Huron High gather on the field in front of the school for fierce competition between the classes. The purpose of these games is to muster spirit for the homecoming game that evening.

Spirit Week Games

Middle right: Showing the freshman spirit in the tug of war is Don Justa, Rick Tinsley, Tim Baker, Julie Smith, Jenny Tucker and Paula Sweeney.

Bottom right: Juniors Anne Breidenich and Michele Pontack pull away from freshmen Julie Smith, Jackie Trousdale and Seniors Beth Webster and Lori Roberts in an effort to clinch first place in the three-legged race. Everyone involved with the games day events had a great time. It was very difficult to tell who had more fun—the spectators or the participants.

And the Band Plays On

Percussionists Ingrid VanErman, Dan Moore, Sachika Takeda, Dean Kruger, John Ashford, and Gordie Inch have a look of concentration as they march in the Homecoming Parade.

Last year the Marching Machine made their way to the festival of States in Florida. The band brought home the Heart of St. Petersburg award. The award was presented by Herb Meleney, head of the festival, at the band's Spring Concert.

Tom-A-Hawks Julie Hudy, Sue Williams, and Rhonda Roth and band members, Sandy Taylor, Andy Cutcher, Steve Guilliat, and Diane King perform in the halftime show. This year's machine was on the move.

The Marching Machine is pictured here in their favorite circle formation which is part of their spectacular halftime performance. Display Flags Denise Haake and Stephanie Micallef lead the Marching Machine in the Sport-A-Thon walk to Pine Grove Park.

"The Marching Machine is max," says junior mellophone player Diane King. "The music is great this year and I love the formations."

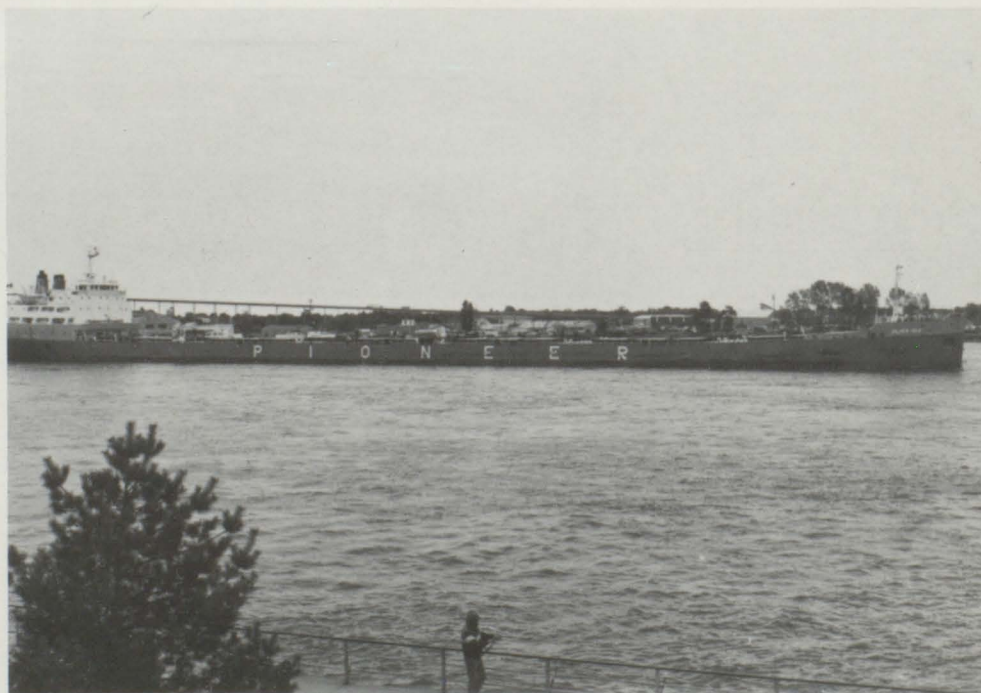

The Marching Machine performs at football games, basketball games, parades, pepbands and concerts.

Cornet player Tim Thomason says "Being in the Marching Machine is a lot of fun because I enjoy competing and marching."

Port Huron: A Summer Portrait

The summer season is probably one of the best times in Port Huron. The major reason for that would have to be Mackinac night. On Mackinac night as many as 40,000 visitors & residents travel to the Black River to look at all the sailboats and yachts lined up for the race. The Mackinac Race is a very busy time with Venders selling everything from soft drinks to Mackinac T-shirts. The whole town is filled with excited people. Port Huron is a festival town. For one week our community is recognized as an international yachting site complete with television & newspaper reporters from all over the United States & Canada. Pictured on this page are a few of the hundreds of yachts which disrupt our normal freighter traffic for one Saturday morning in July.

Newspoints '84

All Seniors have the exciting challenge of Newspoints. Many of the year's top news stories have passed by every Senior's eyes.

Most of the newpoints were obtained from stories like the Marines' massacre bombing in Beirut, the Soviet's shooting down of a South Korean airliner, the US Backed invasion of Grenada, missiles deployment in Europe, and Russian-American arms talks. The Antinuclear movement in Europe, the nuclear freeze drive in the US, Lech Walesa winning the Nobel Peace prize, and Interior Secretary James Watt's resignation were typical newpoint problems for James Grybowski.

Circle Of Friends

The Port Huron High School staff and students are honored to have five exchange students attending our school. The exchange students offer us the chance to learn a different culture and different language. Meeting and talking to an exchange student offers the opportunity to have a friend that is totally different from anyone that you have ever met.

Foreign exchange students attending PHHS this year are Tomi Siltamies from Finland, Sachika Takeda from Japan, Ingrid VanErman from Belgium, Friedrike Sandt from West Germany, and Stefan Seidl from West Germany.

Exchange students have to have a good moral background and good grades. They don't get to pick the state or school but they do get to choose the country as long as they can speak and write the language of that country.

When asked about the teachers at PH in comparison to the teachers at her school in West Germany Frederike said, "The teachers here are more caring and they try to help a student who is behind, even if it means giving up some of their own time." Although it's been hard for them to adjust to American customs, the exchange students are happy and like it here at PHHS.

The exchange students are active in many extra curricular activities. They are all on Student Council, National Honor Society, and in the Marching Machine.

An American custom that is new for these students is Halloween. Pictured top right are Tomi, Stefan, and Sachika as 3 beautiful ladies at a party. Stefan and Tomi take a break at lunch time to discuss the events of the day. Sachika, Ingrid, Friederike, Tomi and Stefan get together in the courtyard. Stefan teaches Sachika to lift weights.

The headline, written by Sachika in Japanese says "Seeing is Believing". To the exchange students this means that although they had heard about America it did little to describe the actual people and sights here. Now that they have had the chance to experience America it is easier for them to understand us.

Participators

Many members of the Senior class are involved in all aspects of school life. Typical Seniors Sherry Genaw and Patti Heron are both involved with extra curricular activities. Sherry is busy with the National Honor Society, BOEC, and the Varsity Cheerleading squad.

Patti is also a BOEC member and is on the Senior Steering Committee. Despite their busy schedules both girls maintain good scholastic averages.

Seniors Sherry and Patti "accidentally" meet enroute to the counseling area where Sherry works as an aide to Mr. Ufford.

Study Time

Senior Physics student Denise Coats carefully considers a difficult Physics equation. Physics combines advanced mathematical skills with the laws of science to help Big Reds come to grips with our technological society.

Not all Seniors complete a rigorous schedule of classes in their Senior year, but those who do will never regret that decision in the future. After all it is the education elected by our Seniors that ultimately is a major factor in their making it in the world beyond the classroom.

Working in Mr. Ask's Physics class is not always as easy as Denise Coats might make you believe.

Icing

At right Kim Kingsbury can't wait to get out of school to ice down her favorite "soft drink." Speech and Reading student Lisa Wood ices down the index of the yearbook. Jazz drummer John Ashford spends his ice time practicing with the Jazz Band.

Ice Time for Seniors

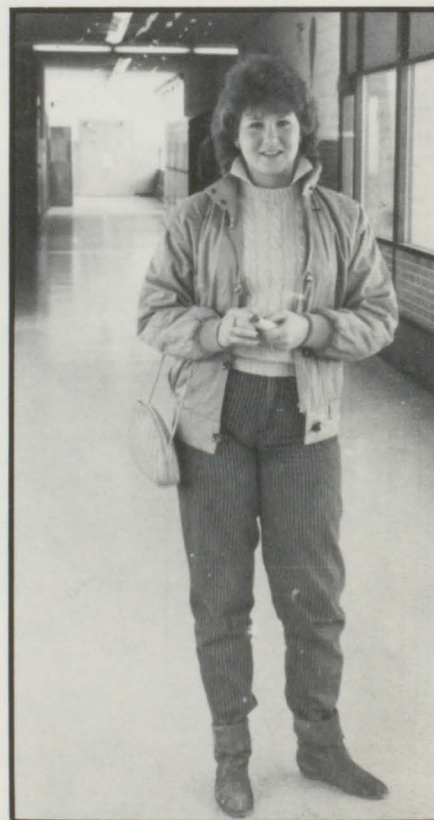

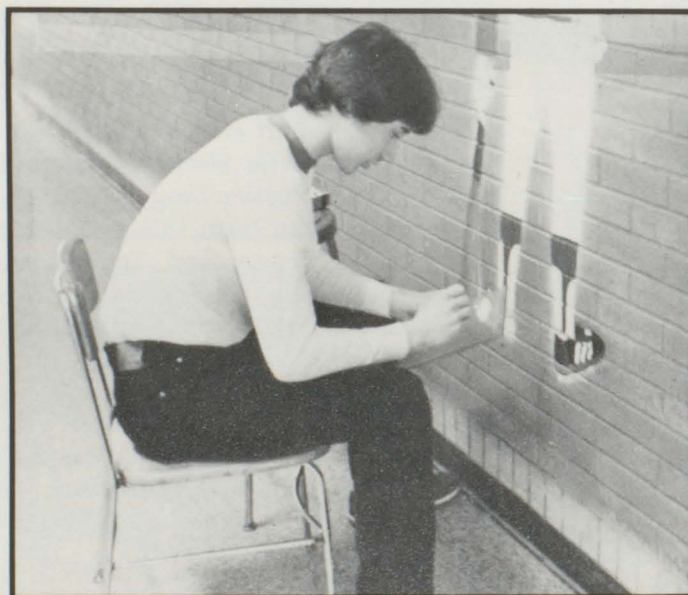

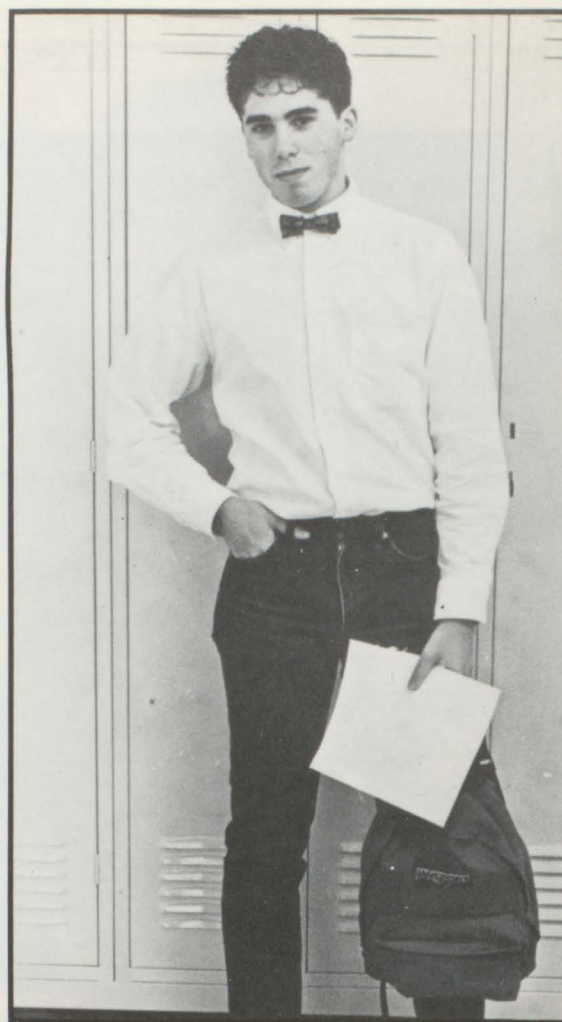

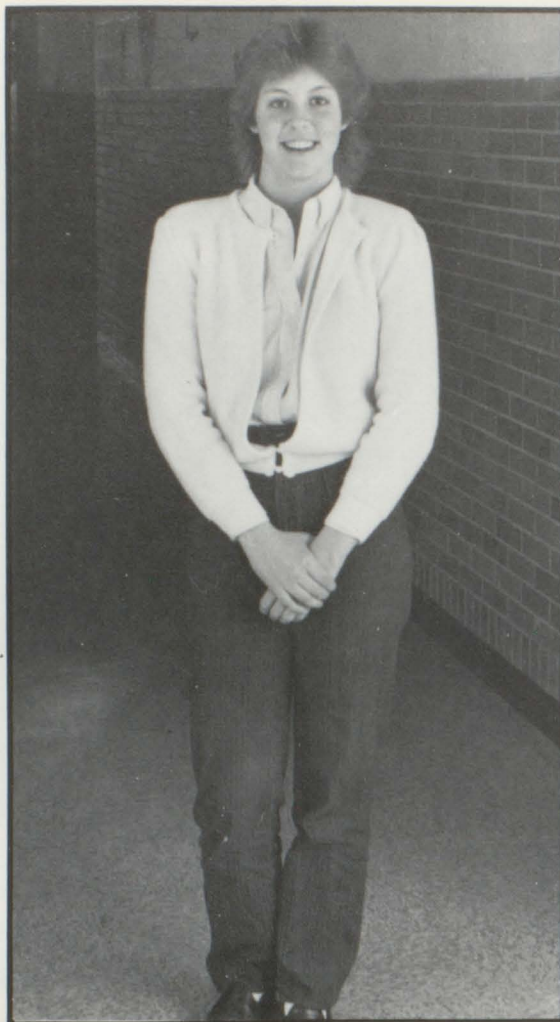

Left wing Todd Lawson skates across the center line to receive the puck from a fellow "Flag" in a close game against the St. Thomas "Pests". Center Steve Emery gets an instruction from a teammate to skate over to receive the puck before he scores once again for the "Flags."

The Port Huron "Flags" is a junior hockey team in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) and in the Great Lakes Hockey League (GLHL).

On the team this year are two Big Reds, Seniors, Steve Emery and Todd Lawson. Although they've only been playing on teams together for five years, Steve and Todd have played hockey for over 12 years. They both feel that the "Flags" are one of the best teams in the area.

This is Todd's second year with the team. His plans are to go on to play hockey at the college level at Princeton University. Steve plans on playing for Michigan Tech. The future seems bright for these talented Seniors.

Mock Elections

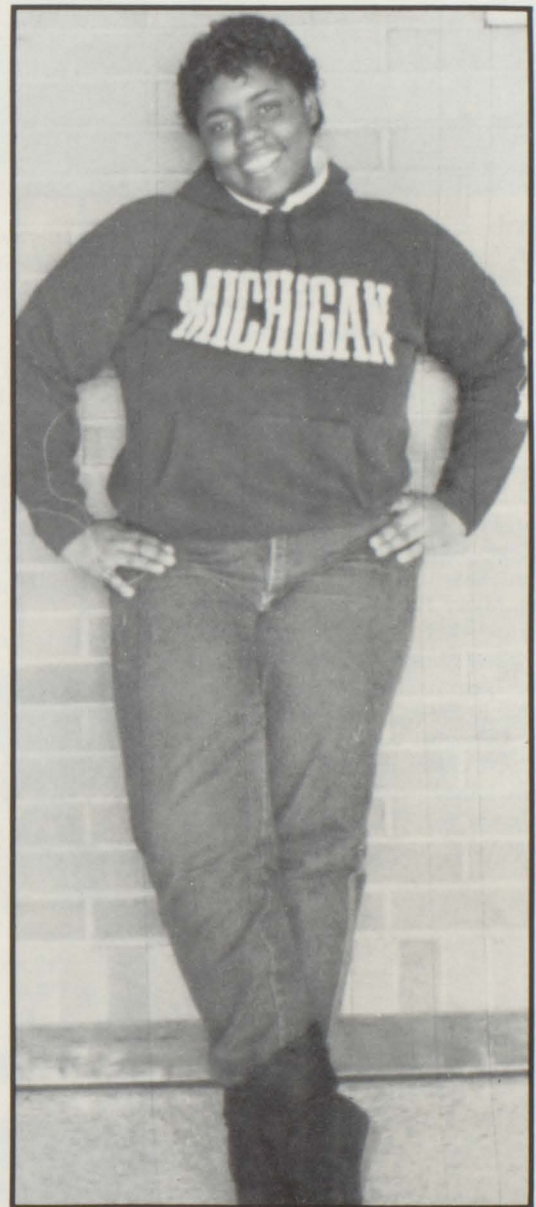

Every Class has a dreamer. This years Senior class dreamer was Becky Moeller. Senior Mark Stover flaunted the G.Q. look. Senior Tony Cook showed off his talent by painting a mural outside the art room. Need an excuse? Ask Anne Seely.

Seniors Elected

Outstanding Senior athletes Sue Esquibel and Cass Eccles pose in front of our Big Red trophy case. Voted always late were Stacy Reynolds and Matt Glombowski. At right was Monique Wheeler voted best singer by her fellow classmates.

Choirs Concert Splendid!!

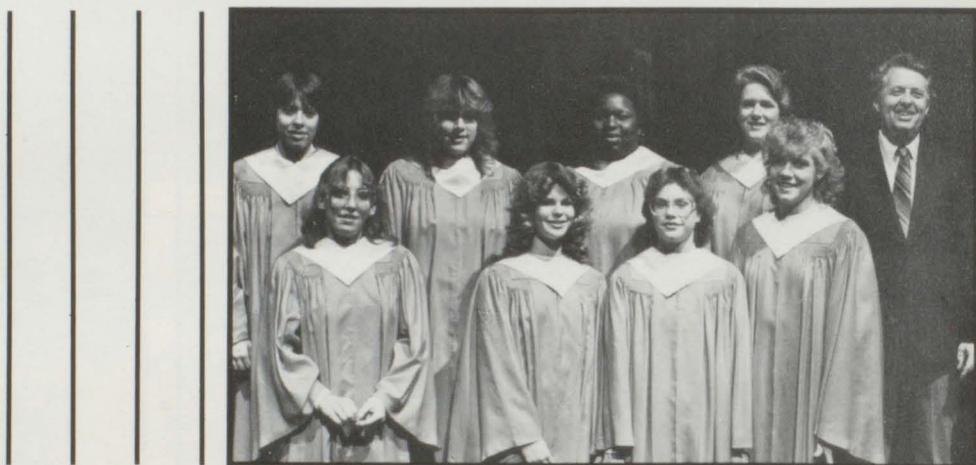

On December 8, the choirs of Port Huron High performed at the Fine Arts Building of the St. Clair County Community College. Under the superb direction of Tom Norager the Chorale, Ensemble, and Festival Choirs performed an exciting traditional holiday concert. All three groups were well received by an enthusiastic audience with several members of the audience joining the choirs for "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

This concert was the first major performance by the choirs. Mr. Norager and the choirs have begun a fine vocal tradition which promises to provide a solid musical contribution.

In the December concert the Ensemble and Festival choirs performed seperately and then joined with the Chorale and choir alumni for "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

Chorale

Chorale, under the direction of Tom Norager, is an excellent educational activity. The class provides students with the opportunity to develop their vocal musical ability. It provides students the opportunity to gain valuable competitive performance experience singing before a variety of audiences. Second year instructor Mr. Tom Norager wants the PH choral program to be better than any other musical group in our community.

"We practice everyday, no matter what," remarked Lisa Wood. "The choir's reputation is really getting popular. We want this choir to be noticed."

Performances this year included the Fine Arts Concert, an appearance at the Fogcutter, the Christmas Assembly, and a taping for a televised program to be aired on a local television station.

With hard work and dedication this group of performers will soon be recognized by our community as a fine musical organization.

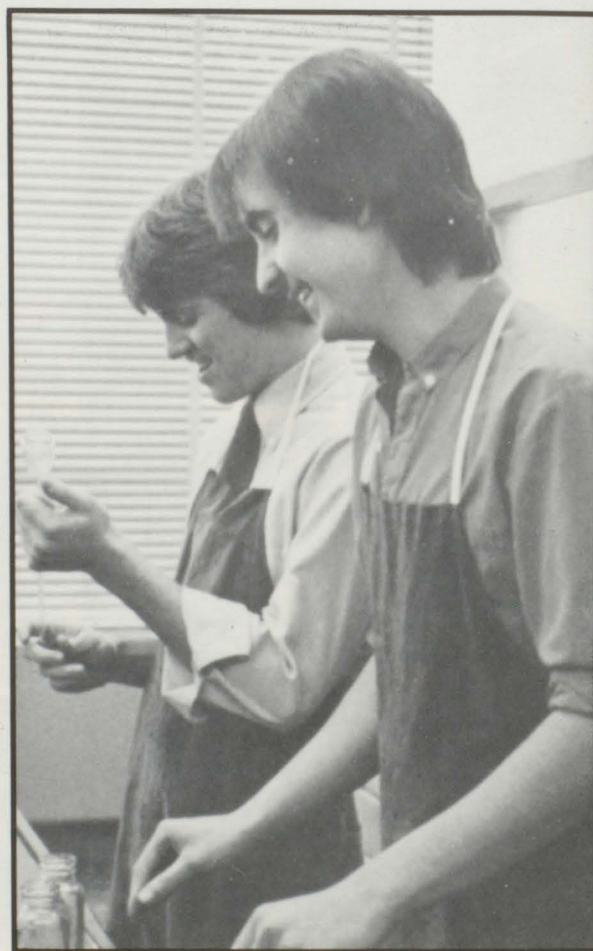

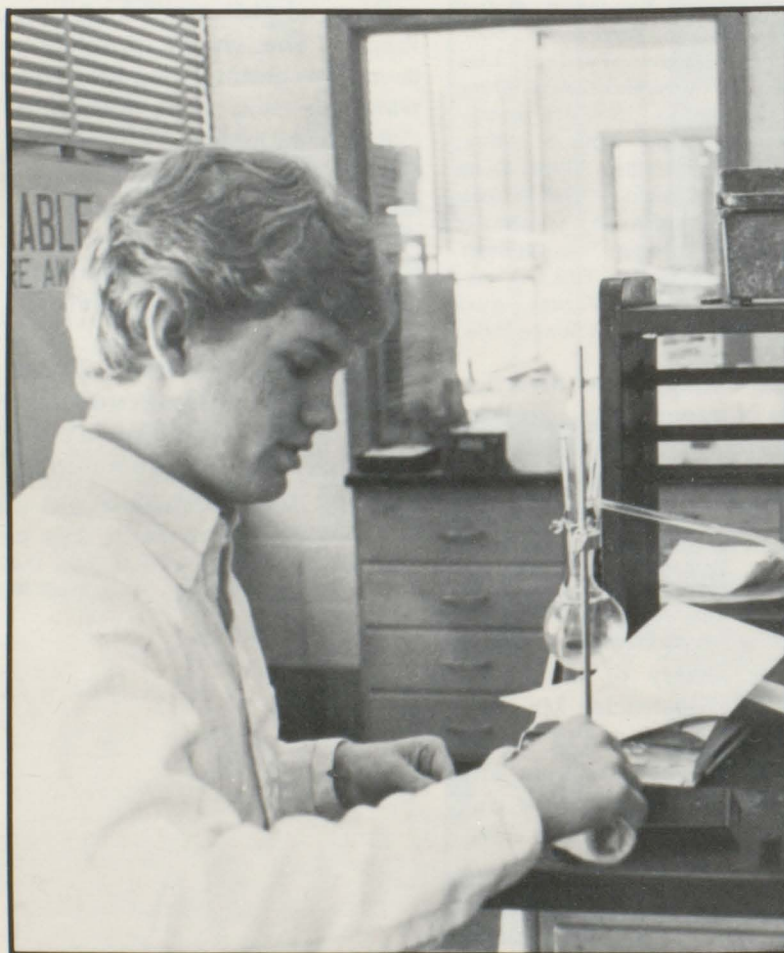

Chemistry—Computers—Careers

Whether it is Advanced Chemistry or Computer Science, Seniors show the determination it takes to keep up with the future. Classes like Chemistry and Computer Science lead many students to engineering, Computer Programming, and corporation Chemistry jobs.

Seniors Jim Rankin, Mark Hudy, and Charlie Friedland are about to tackle the challenge that sixth hour Advanced Chemistry will bring their way. While on the other hand Paul Zachara takes advantage of the "80's" advance in technology.

Athletics—Competition for Life

Tennis players Kerry Mullins, Julie VonHiltmayer, Tracy Bonner, and Chris Muehlmann are part of the Big Red sports tradition. Interscholastic sports at PH promote the team concept illustrated in the JV Football shot at left as well as individual athletic achievements illustrated by high jumper Tony Cook.

Varsity catcher, Beth Sullivan, waits for the start of the game.

Athletic Director Bolden and Mrs. Speiss are comparing times for a crucial league meet.

Coach Repp awaits the outcome of the JV girls game. Hurler, Penny LaPine, throws another strike for the girls JV softball team.

Timers Mr. Peltz, Mrs. Haas, and Mr. Haas get ready for Anthony Thomason in the 880 yard dash.

Slugger, Michele Pontack, and on deck, Dana DeBell, show the form which helped the JV team win 13 games.

Spring Time Sports

As the spring sports season got underway, we all thought the weather would determine the outcome of the season. Fortunately, the sports players did not let that get in the way of the many victories gained.

The rainy, wet, and cold days of practice urged Andria Malachi to run harder. Hard enough to win the All Eastern Michigan League title and the All Blue Water Area title.

The fantastic team of John Lee, Eric Bolden, Cliff Johnson, and Anthony Thomason qualified for state finals. All of the spring sports teams have done exceptionally well capped by the boys' track teams EML title. Spring proved to be a time of excitement, hardwork, and fulfillment for all involved in our sports program.

Knowledge gained early in the season led to wins. JV players were given a chance to develop their own special abilities. Ron Cook, Mark Bynum, Bill Byers, and Mike LeFever were outstanding players named to the Richmond All-Tournament team.

Good Times Ahead

With eight returning lettermen, the 1984 team should benefit with the experience gained by this years squad. Coach Hillaker's squad had a roller-coaster season led by Captains Ted Chichonoski, Gordie Dunlap, and Steve Emery. Steve Emery's .344 batting average led the team and shows great promise for next season. Juniors Todd Lawson and Steve Emery should provide leadership for next years squad. With the key Varsity players and the upcoming J.V. stars next years season should hold promises of good times ahead. Everyone expects a good season next year.

Starting Pitcher Todd Lawson starts in his motion toward home plate for the final strike of the game.

Outfielder Aaron Hauenstein gets up from the bench to help relief pitcher Mike Hardie warm up for the next inning.

The year has been good, but the best is yet to come. Varsity track member Andrea Malachi advises future track members: "Track is an individual sport and it is up to you to win, but it is also a team sport because you put out everything for the team." This feeling seems to be one that goes with each of the girls, which is probably the reason for the teams outstanding performance in invitational meets this past year. 1983 was also the first year that Port Huron High School has ever won the Port Huron Relays. This event was said to be the highlights of the girls season. Most Valuable Player Kim Goulding said "I find track to be a very challenging sport. To know that you've done your best is a great feeling."

Varsity Girls Track members were: Jamie Daniels, Heron Chisholm, Anna Prax, Beth Krenke, Julie Cole, Francetti Edwards, Kelly Putz, Kim Goulding, and Phyllis Portis. Middle row: Vera Ashford, Gina Thelmas, Angie Spencer, Lara Heiser, Selina Lloyd, Lori Lightfoot, Tammi Fuller, Nikki George, and Judy Trice. Blazing speed is what guaranteed the 1983 EML Championship for the Big Red track team. Broken records and outstanding scores were not uncommon and often expected. Some of the athletes responsible for this season were distance runners Bryon Lyon, and Tom Harris. Members of our outstanding relay teams were John Lee, Anthony Thomason, Eric Bolden, Cliff Johnson and Jeff Chisolm. With seven wins and two first places the track team ended the season proudly.

As Lightning Strikes

Lightning quick speed led to an EML Championship and several team records. The relay team of Lindsay, Chisolm, Adams and Thomason broke the 440 yd. relay record with a time of 44.3. Thomason also set a record with a time of 6.38 in the 60 yd. dash. The relay team of Johnson, Lee, Bolden, and Thomason broke the record for the mile relay with a time of 3 minutes and 22.9 seconds.

Working for Success

The Varsity Softball team finished their season with a record of 13 wins and 6 losses. Fine pitching, good defense, and improved hitting made this team great.

All-EML team members were Becky LaPine, and Sue Esquibel. All-EML Academic Player was Roni Lloyd. EML Honorable Mentions were Roni Lloyd, Mary Gardocki, and Trish Crimmins.

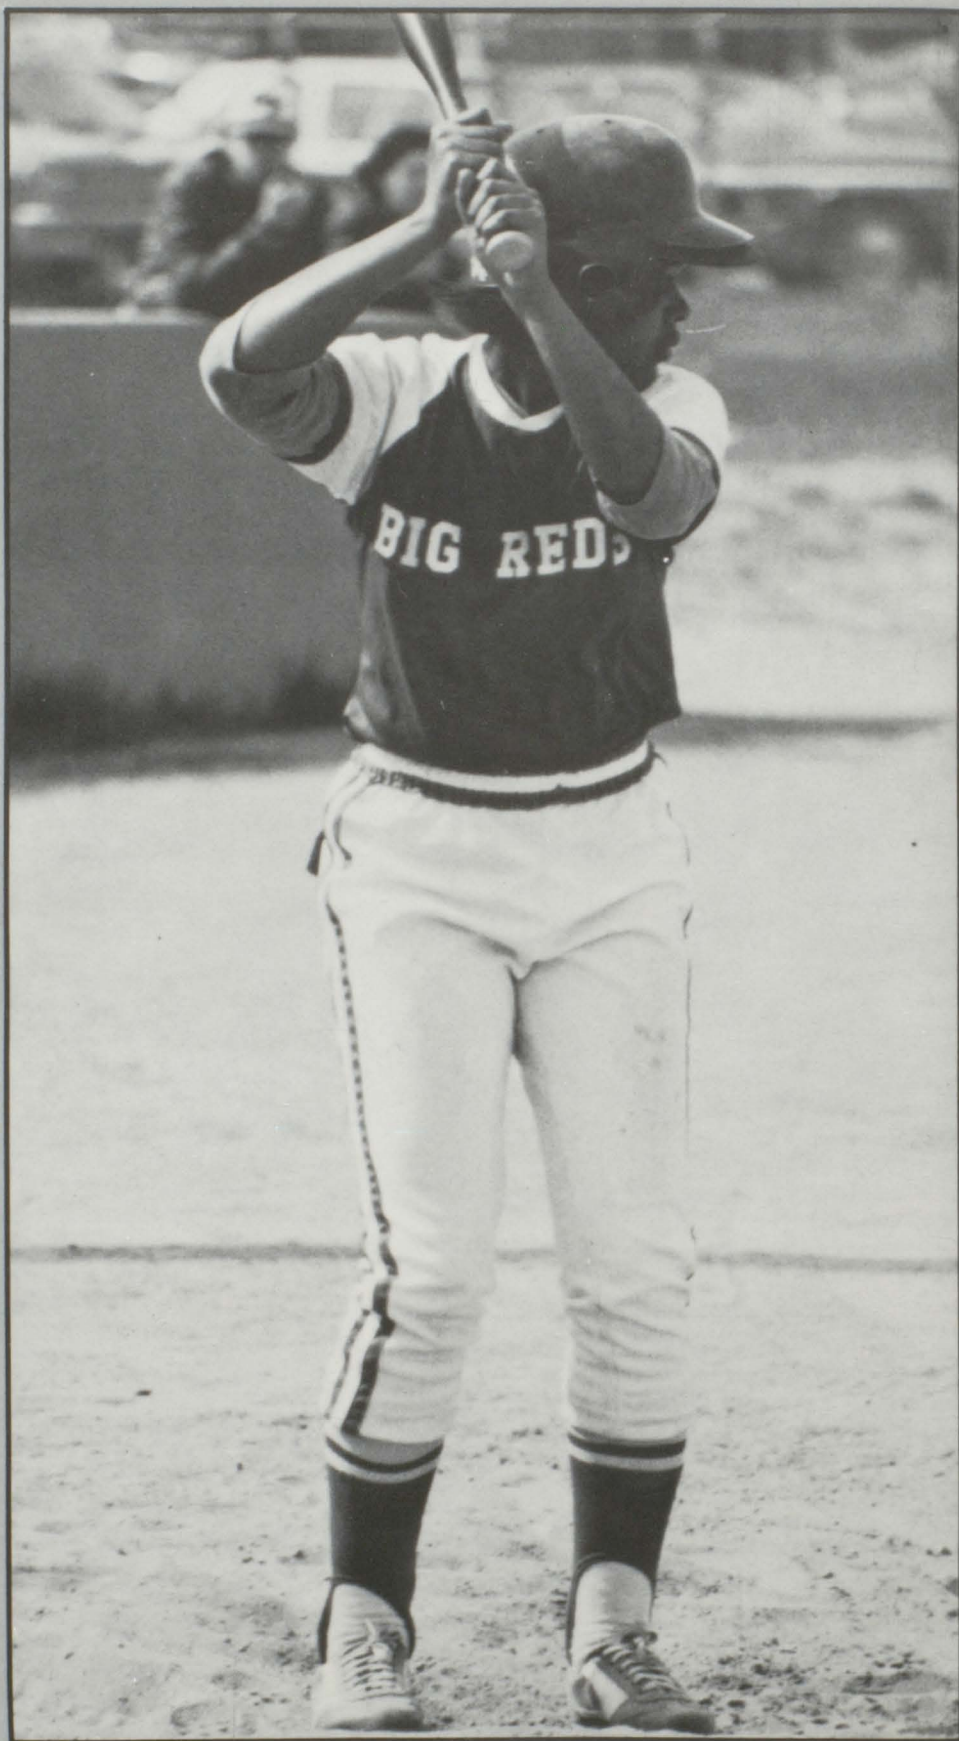

Trish Crimmins said, "softball gives me the chance to excell personally and to work for the success of the team."

Varsity Softball Coach Frost gives encouragement to slugger Roni Lloyd before she cracks a single up the middle.

Hurler Mary Gardocki winds up and delivers her fastball.

The varsity team cheers on speedster Trish Crimmins.

After a tough 3 game losing streak, the J.V. Softball team bounced back to win the league championship against Mount Clemens with a football-like score of 42 to 0. Coach Repp stated that the 1983 J.V. Softball team was one of the best he has ever coached. With only four upperclassmen remaining on the team after two star sophomores went to Varsity level, freshmen dominated the field. The outstanding pitching ability of Jayne Hernandez was an asset to the teams record of 13 wins and 3 losses. Leading hitters were Penny LaPine, Jayne Hernandez, and Chrys Glombowski. With the key players from the J.V. team competing for positions on the Varsity roster, Varsity head coach Mr. Frost will have some tough decisions.

Catcher, Kelly MacPherson puts on an extra burst of speed as she beats the tag to score another run for the Big Reds. Starting pitcher, Jayne Hernandez warms up before pitching another excellent game. A determined Kelly MacPherson surprises her opposing team by cracking one of their pitches deep into the outfield. The members of the 1983 championship J.V. softball team were: (back row) Dursilla Green, Missy Reid, Vicki Prater, Dana DeBell, Tracy Bonner, Barb Willey, Kerry Mullins, Kelly Wilson, Penny La Pine, Coach Repp, (front row) Liz Cummings, Chrys Glombowski, Kelly MacPherson, Tracie Hartman, and Jayne Hernandez.

Fall Sports—Big Red Spirit

Fall sports programs at Port Huron High are typical of the enthusiasm, pride, and spirit of our Big Red Community. The student body was in high spirits the day of the PHHS—Northern football game. Each class was trying to yell their Big Red mottos louder than any other class. The pep band was belting out the Port Huron Fight Song. Athletes and cheerleaders lined the floor to hear Coach Rodenbaugh promise a Big Red Victory.

All this excitement was over who would claim the "bell." The last few years Big Red spirit and determination has won the game for us.

Our school spirit shines in all of our other fall sports. Basketball, tennis, and golf teams participation and spirit enable PHHS to have a well rounded athletic program. Without the help of the Port Huron Athletic Sports Boosters Association, the sports program would not have been possible.

Fight Big Reds!

"Freshmen Cheerleading is fun," said Kathy Bowie, one of the six Freshmen Cheerleaders at PHHS. Under the direction of Dawn Sassinella, the squad performed at various school activities such as Freshmen football games, pep assemblies, and competitions. One such competition was the Eastern Michigan League Competition held at East Detroit High School this year where our squad was well-received by all who observed.

Hours upon hours of practicing in the school hallways made this freshmen squad a well-disciplined group of fine individuals.

Freshmen Cheerleading is a stepping stone toward Junior Varsity and Varsity cheerleading squads. Enthusiasm is the key to a good Varsity squad and these girls, as Freshmen have shown the enthusiasm necessary to "spark" the Freshmen teams on to victory. We are sure that the energy displayed by this squad helped to inspire our successful Freshmen teams.

Jeannie Wiegand, Melanie Wrench, and Kathy Bowie along with the rest of the Freshman cheerleading squad cheer the Freshmen Football team on to victory.

And a Whole Lot More

"I'm proud to be on this year's squad. We work hard to be the best, but we still have fun," said Junior Ann Paciorek. That is exactly the kind of attitude the J.V. Cheerleading squad tries to get across—pride, fun, spirit, and a bit of hard work. "I think they're good. Sometimes you can almost feel their enthusiasm in the bleachers," says Senior Laura Harrington. Enthusiasm is what cheerleading is all about. After school, they spend hours trying to perfect their routines. Sometimes it works, sometimes not. "I remember it was the game against Roseville. We tried to do the 'hello' mount, but we all fell. It was very embarrassing," says Junior Benita Melton. Emotions play a large part of being a cheerleader. Through every football and basketball game, you can see the Junior Varsity lead the fans through cheer after cheer. This squad of eight girls represents everyone's emotions. When the team is winning, for the cheerleaders as well as everyone else, spirits run high. When the team starts to lose, everyone feels that, too. Through the good times as well as the bad, our Junior Varsity is always ready.

What does it mean to be a cheerleader? When asked this question, the varsity cheerleaders replied: Connie Thiele, "It's exciting, fun, and a lot of hard work, but the hard work shows each time we cheer." Karen Novar, "Being a cheerleader is something I always wanted to do. It's a lot of work, but it really pays off." Beth Hooper, "It's the chance to be out on the field and cheer for the guys. It's a lot of fun, but it gets pretty hard." Denise Nadeau, "Being a cheerleader to me is to have the opportunity to be involved with the school and the sports." Sue Vernon, "It's a lot of fun. You get to meet a lot of people and have a good time while representing the Big Reds." Sherry Genaw, "It gives me the chance to meet a lot of people, not only in P.H., but all over. It lets me be me!"

Top right, junior Denise Nadeau smiles at the crowd as she cheers the Big Red football players on to another victory. Keeps Big Red Spirit Alive

It's a cold Friday night and the football players are at it again. The spectators are yelling, and the announcer Mr. Lutz is trying to talk over all the noise. But who are the most loyal and spirited people in the stadium? The answer is the Varsity Cheerleaders. Made up of seven individuals, these girls are cheering and pushing the team for another victory. The spectators play a big part, but it's the cheerleaders who are at every game, sometimes very cold and wet for football games, or hot and dry for basketball games, but they are always there.

The cheerleaders are the ones who decorate the team's lockers the day before the games, hang colorful "good luck" signs, keep the guys going, and make the crowds go wild. Envied by so many people, the cheerleaders are the most spirited club at P.H.S.S.

Bottom: Senior Sherry Genaw gets a little wild during a varsity football game. She and the other cheerleaders always have a good time at the games, and show it! Top: the varsity cheerleaders show us their "hello" mount.

"Hello. We are here to say hello and have a little fun. And while we are doing that, we'll prove we're number one! It's more than our spirit, it's more than our pride. We can jam, we've got that beat, we are electrified! We'll climb to the top just to let you know. We wish you luck and say HELLO! One more time before we're through, Reds are out, to get you!"

What It Takes

The job of a Varsity Cheerleader is more than simply showing up for a game. The squad is selected in the last two weeks of May after completing a rigorous tryout program. Practice sessions start at the end of July and run two hours a day, Monday-Friday. During football season practice sessions are held three days a week for 2 hours. When the squad is preparing for competitions, practice sessions run about 5 nights a week for 3-4 hours a night. During basketball season practice sessions run 2 nights a week. After basketball season ends they again prepare for tryouts. The hard work and dedication of this year's team was made possible by the cooperation of the team members, their parents, and sponsors Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Scheffler.

Up one week but down the next the 1983 Junior Varsity squad completed a 3 wins, 4 losses, and 2 ties season. This years squad captured wins over Roseville, Anchor Bay, and Port Huron Northern. All games this year were hotly contested. Only Grosse Pointe was able to shut down the JV offense. Arch-rival Port Huron Northern was crushed by a fired up JV offense and defense. JV coaches Bart Misiyak and Mark Law worked hard to create a winning attitude. Their efforts should result in heavy competition for next years squad.

Ranked 4th in the EML

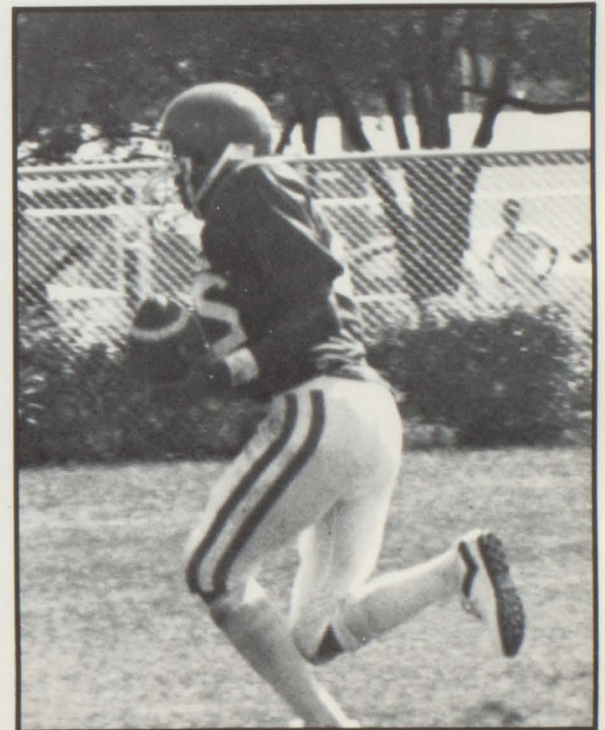

The Varsity football team for 1983-84 had a memorable season. Coach Rodenbaugh feels that this season was very good, but next year should be even better. Rodenbaugh's goal for next year is to win one more game than they did this year.

The Varsity won the "Victory Bell" for the third year in a row against Northern by a score of 40-0.

We also won the "Little Brown Jug" by defeating Mt. Clemens, by the score of 21-12.

Outstanding players this year were Joe Rankin, Wendall Callahan, and Cass Eccles. Rankin was a leader on offense. According to Coach Rodenbaugh, Rankin had authority to change plays if needed to compensate for unexpected defensive formations. Callahan was outstanding on defense and has several college coaches looking his way. Eccles was the leading ground gainer this season and will be missed next year.

Members of the Big Red V. Football Team for 1983-84 were: Front row: C. Floyd, D. Koppelberger, S. Damaschke, J. Kerr, K. Schneider, T. May, J. Johnson, J. Moeller, W. Callahan, B. Durham, S. Never Say Die

This squad showed spirit, determination, and heart. Enthusiasm for the game was shown dramatically in their final game against Anchor Bay. In their previous game with Anchor Bay the Big Reds lost by 24 points. The first quarter score of their second meeting was 16-1 Anchor Bay. Still behind in the fourth quarter the Big Reds managed to tie Anchor Bay at the buzzer. Our team went on to victory in overtime to end the regular season on a winning note.

Top rebounder Anna Prax with over 188 rebounds shows off another skill as she leaps up to score against Mt. Clemens. At right: top scorer Sue Esquibel with a 12.7 shooting average per game, takes advantage of Selina Lloyds screen and executes a perfect jump shot for two points.

Learning Experience

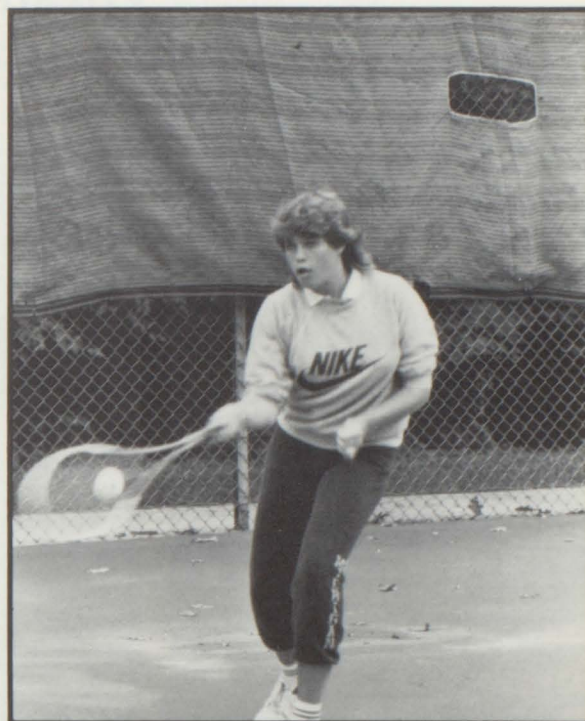

Being part of any J.V. team is both tough and rewarding. The tough part is just learning the techniques of the game. In the process of learning anything, there may be times when one "screws up" but that's just part of playing.

The rewarding part of being on a J.V. team is learning how to work well with others. The squad achieved their victories through teamwork and skill. They were fast, hard working, and showed a lot of potential. The J.V. team started off on the right foot as they won their first game against a tough Algonac team. This year of experience for the J.V. players should be a good step toward Varsity.

In the E.M.L. tournament, they beat L'Anse Cruese North and tied with Mount Clemens to gain a 3rd place victory.

Tracy Bonner made it to the 3rd round of the regionals. Next year's team promises to top this year's record with eight of the ten girls returning to the team.

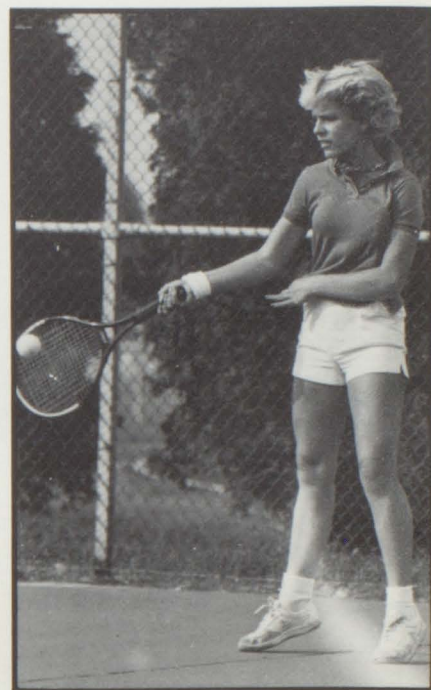

First singles player Mo Koerber contends with the sun while smashing an overhead shot. Third singles player Julie Burleigh concentrates on beating her opponent from Grosse Pointe South. Julie gained a lot of experience this year, which helped the Varsity team to victory.

Sophomore Tracy Bonner Struggles to keep her eye on the ball. The sun was hard to ignore and usually was an important factor in hitting.

The golf team had a "rebuilding" year, coached by Kevin Senn. This years record was 1-11. Ron Willey, Senior, was elected to the EML All-Academic team and won the Black River MVP. Ron's average was 45.4. Returning letter winners for next year are Dave Sheehan, with an average of 49.2, Chris Kelly with an average of 49.3, and Tom Seely with an average of 52.4. These four returning golfers will be the nucleus of the "improving" team for next year. Hit'em long and hit'em straight.

The Big Reds Winter sports program has brought in some really wild crowds for the 1983-1984 season. The spirit generated by these fans sparked the teams on to victory. These fans also supported the team through gate receipts.

Spiking, Setting, Swishing—Scoring

Varsity volleyball players Penny Lapine, Dana Debell, Tracie Hartman, Stacey Reynolds, Tori Hartman, Tracy Green, Debbie Kennedy, and Malisse Callahan warm up before playing a tough game against Roseville.

Eleventh grade Varsity sensation Robert (BJ) Sanderson scores an easy two points with this lay up.

With only one returning player and a practically brand new team, the 1983-84 season for Junior Varsity Volleyball looked dim. Winning against Marysville and Clintondale early in the season seemed to give Coach Rebecca Falk some hope for the young team. "Three girls in particular just seemed to give the team the spark they needed." She is, of course, talking about Sophomore Kerrie Mullins and Freshmen twins Joyce and Julie Hubbard. Their hustle, effort and enthusiasm not only impressed the coach, but also the fans. The team's spirit has been great all season.

The Freshmen basketball team showed potential. The Freshmen year is always the hardest because the transition from intermediate basketball to high school basketball requires hard work. These men have shown they are willing to try.

Freshmen basketball is a good experience for those players who plan to play on the Junior Varsity and Varsity levels. Freshmen learn the basic plays and develop the necessary skills to be a part of a good Varsity team. Coached this year by Robert Wydrzynski, the squad worked long tough hours to master the basics. Practicing at 5:30 am one day and 7:30 pm the next did not make the job any easier. With hard work and a good mental outlook, members of this squad should help our basketball program in the future.

games because we out rebound every team and our shots are beginning to fall."

After a miraculous start of three overtime wins against top-ranked area opponents Marysville, Algonac, and St. Clair, the Big Reds proved their strength as the number one ranked team in the Blue Water Area by the Times Herald.

This year's balanced attack and unselfish play contributed to the team's vast improvement over last season.

Sports Fun for Everyone

Students, parents, teachers, administrators, and our community were all involved in maintaining an excellent athletic program this year. Mr. Semelsberger, our Athletic Director, should be commended for a job well done.

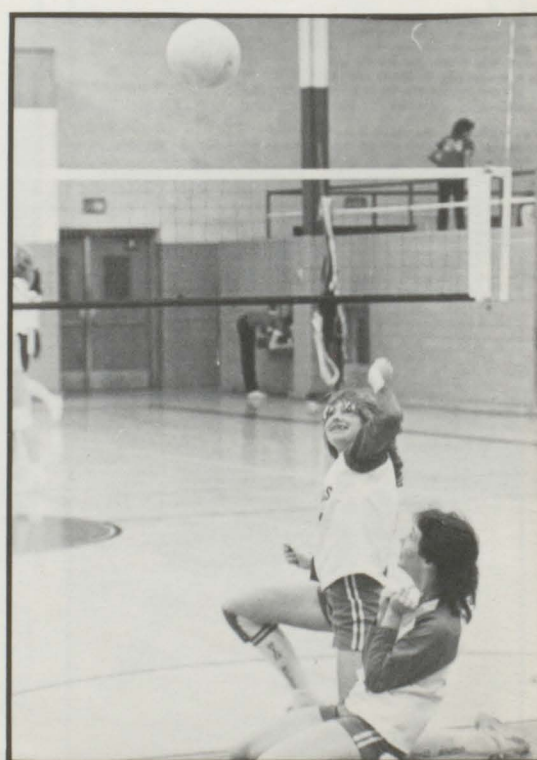

Freshman guard Robert Nadeau pulls up for two, while Otis Johnson waits to get the rebound.

Media specialist and coach Mr. Domke concentrated on the game. He really enjoyed taping the Varsity Basketball team in action with our schools new VCR movie camera.

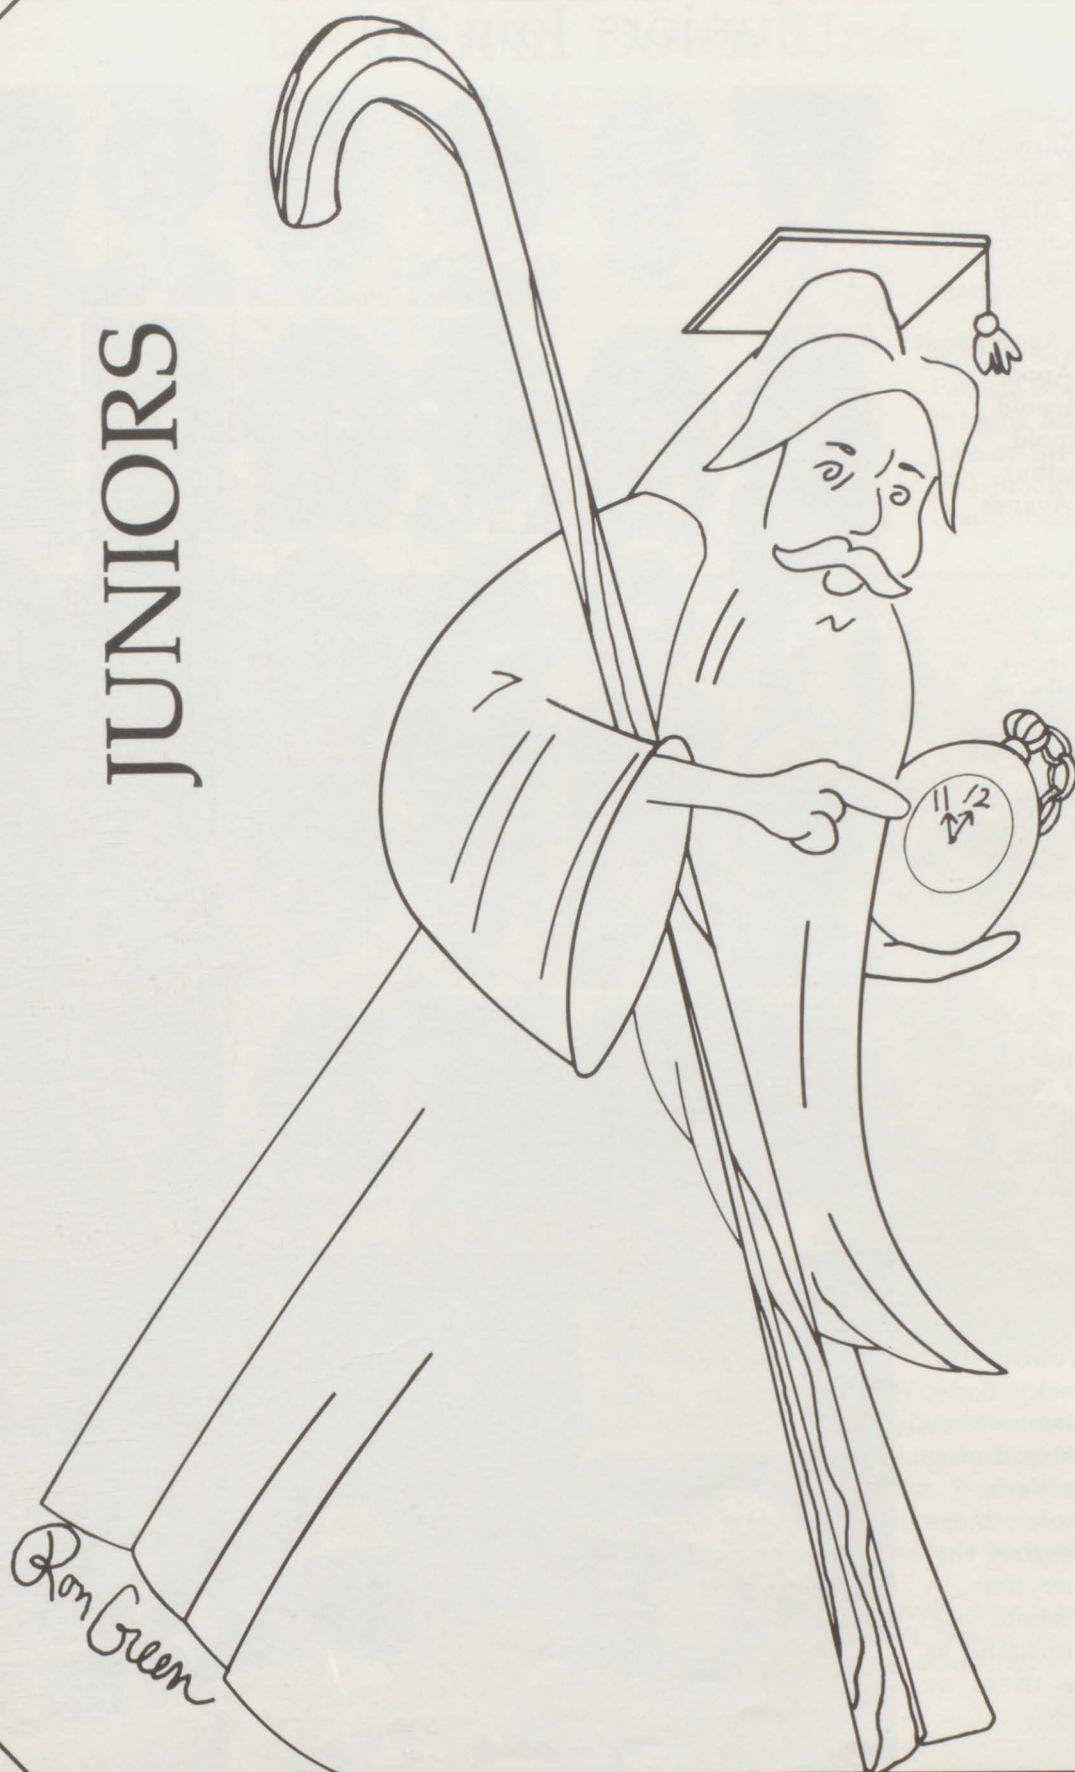

Senior Ron Willey gains the edge on a jump ball, and Senior D'wan Lindsay eagerly awaits the tip.

Freshmen Marc Moncrief watches Solomon Brown's jump shot and was ready to recover the loose ball.

Varsity Volleyball player Torie Hartman kneels out of the way while fellow Junior, Kelly Bauman retrieves the ball.

She's back! After being in North South Whales, Australia as an exchange student from January 21, 1982 to December 14, 1983 Jane Fowler returned to Port Huron High.

While in Australia Jane attended Mt. St. Benedict High which was a private all-girl Catholic school. The school year began in February and ended in December with nine hour school days. Jane participated with some classmates in a swim competition. Their team took third place.

Australia is very different from Port Huron. Clothing styles resemble those of England and the "hair styles are crazy", commented Jane. The temperature in the summer is in the 90's but in the winter the temperatures stayed in the 60's. It must have been different for Jane to come back to Michigan with its sub zero temperatures we have had this winter.

Jane misses her host family and plans to visit them in the near future. Jane stated that her favorite thing about Australia was the "people because they're friendly."

Jane's host family consisted of Scott, Paul, Simone, Mrs. Wajor, Mr. Wajor, and Diaan with Jane in the front.

Do you remember your very first best friend? Chances are that you can, because who would ever forget a true friend? Friends are special people that you keep forever, friends until the end. Here are six people who fit into that category. Below are Juniors Connie Roberts and Kim Klebba, middle are Juniors Beth Hooper and Charlotte Paton, right are Juniors Jeff Kerr and Kelly Bauman.

Lights, Camera, Action!!

Port Huron High School's newest video addition is the RCA Video Cassette Recorder. Here Richie Cunningham makes his debut as a film maker in Mr. Clair's Retailing class. He taped commercials of students demonstrating products that they have developed.

The VHS unit has been used this year to film basketball and volleyball games.

Attention Please! All Students in Lockers 305-330—Get Out!!

This year there is a hallway for every mood you are in. Students this year were warned by our PA system to remove their locker materials so that painter, John Farrington, could make our lockers shine. This year many faces broke out in smiles after observing this brilliant addition to our school. Key questions by many students centered on the problem of finding notebooks and texts.

It's Time

Transfer student Judy Bender from Sarnia takes time out to work out the French pronunciation of yearbook—"Livres duration."

The Junior year is not only a period for fun it is also the time most students begin building on their careers. Course selection and classroom performance help shape the student intellectually. Classroom attitudes and abilities developed by Juniors will carry over to the working world.

Lifesaver

While delivering papers on the afternoon of December 29th Junior Paul Rowse found one of his customers, Vi Gosman, standing at her door unable to communicate. Paul sensing trouble quickly helped her to a neighbor's home. Without Paul's quick action this stroke victim might have died.

Enthusiastic Natalie Buckley and Robyn Turner are two of the many juniors who know how to have a good time at school dances. Their attendance is mandatory never missing a single dance.

Besides partying and going to dances Natalie and Robyn are both involved in yearbook and just making the Junior class more fun.

Fun—Friends—Future

As we all know being a Junior is exciting but it's not all fun and games, there is also much work involved. In order for Juniors to become Seniors they must pass their two required classes, U.S. History and English and their three electives. With hard work and much effort they pass successfully and enter into their Senior year. This is when they begin wondering about what they are going to do and who they are going to become in the future.

Studious Anna Prax prepares her homework assignment for her Algebra-3 class.

Finding time for study requires planning in Anna's case because she played Varsity Track and Varsity Basketball this year. Her college prep schedule was even more difficult this year because of an increased emphasis on homework by the Port Huron High faculty.

Teacher?

"Teacher for a day" Pete McNeice plans his daily Curriculum. Students will benefit from a speech on "How to Dress Preppy" and a demonstration of lunch room etiquette. Rumor has it he is suspended from teaching for dating one of his students.

Actually, Pete McNeice is a junior here at PH borrowing Mr. Verran's desk.

Climbing to the Top

To reach the stars was a goal that was possible for all Juniors at PH this year. In the early 80's welfare and unemployment reached all time highs. Students in Port Huron were forced to recognize tough economic times as sports programs and curricular offerings were cut. This year as inflation eased and unemployment dropped the economy began to pick up. Sports programs were improved and course offerings increased. This year Juniors enjoyed an expanded athletic program and improvement in computer technology offered by our Science Department.

Reaching for the top were Jeff Lamonica on the rope in a physical education class and Rob Herron solving a problem on our Commodore 64's in Mr. Ask's class.

Radio Station

Best—After several years of WRIF craze, this year brought a new style of music—"New Music." WLBS was the number one radio station with WLLZ running a close second.

Dead Last

In this category CKLW received the most votes. Could it be that the listeners miss Dick Purtan?

Television Show

Best—The TV show that won the most votes was the A-Team. Could it be that Mr. T intimidated the Juniors so much that they voted for the show out of sheer terror?

Dead Last

The night time soap opera, Dynasty received the most votes for this category.

Fast Food

Best—This was no surprise. McDonalds won by a wide margin. McDonalds is now operating on a Big Red theme. They also supported a coupon fund-raiser to support our athletes.

Dead Last

Although White Castle is located in Detroit, it was voted the worst fast food restaurant.

Soft Drink

Best—Coke is it! This slogan proved to be the truth when the results of this survey were totaled.

Dead Last

Most Juniors felt they would not prefer to drink a Dr. Pepper.

Actor

Best—Now calm down girls, it is Tom Cruise! Tom starred in Taps, The Outsiders, Risky Business, and All the Right Moves.

Dead Last

Although A-Team was the No. 1 show, Mr. T was the worst actor.

Actress

Best—Star of Kramer vs. Kramer and Sophie's Choice, Meryl Streep won this category. She is currently starring in Silkwood.

Dead Last

The ever popular star of Sahara, Brooke Shields swept this category as the worst actress.

Video Game

Best—Centipede slithers into the heart of Big Red Country!

Dead Last

After a two year craze Pac-Man has finally died. Yes, Pac-Man was the worst video game of the year as voted by the Junior class.

Country Group

Best—With "The Closer You Get" Alabama swept this category.

Dead Last

"Poncho and Lefty" took Willie Nelson to win this category.

Movie

Best—Risky Business was chosen by the majority of the Junior class. While showing in the area this movie was held over at both the Huron and the Playhouse.

Dead Last

Although many people love these little blue creatures, they thought the movie, The Smurfs and the Magic Flute, had alot to be desired.

Place to Hang Out

Best—Surprise! The place that received the most votes is Downtown, Port Huron.

Dead Last

Juniors prefer the "fast lane." Most Juniors surveyed felt that the worst place to hang out is home.

Car

Best—Juniors prefer Corvettes over any other cars.

Dead Last

They felt that the worst car is a Volkswagon.

Pizza

Best—Juniors are economy conscious. They felt that Little Caesars with "Pizza Pizza" was #1.

Dead Last

The last place Juniors would go was a freezer for pizza.

Rock Group

Best—Although a Heavy Metal Group, Quiet Riot was the number one rock group.

Dead Last

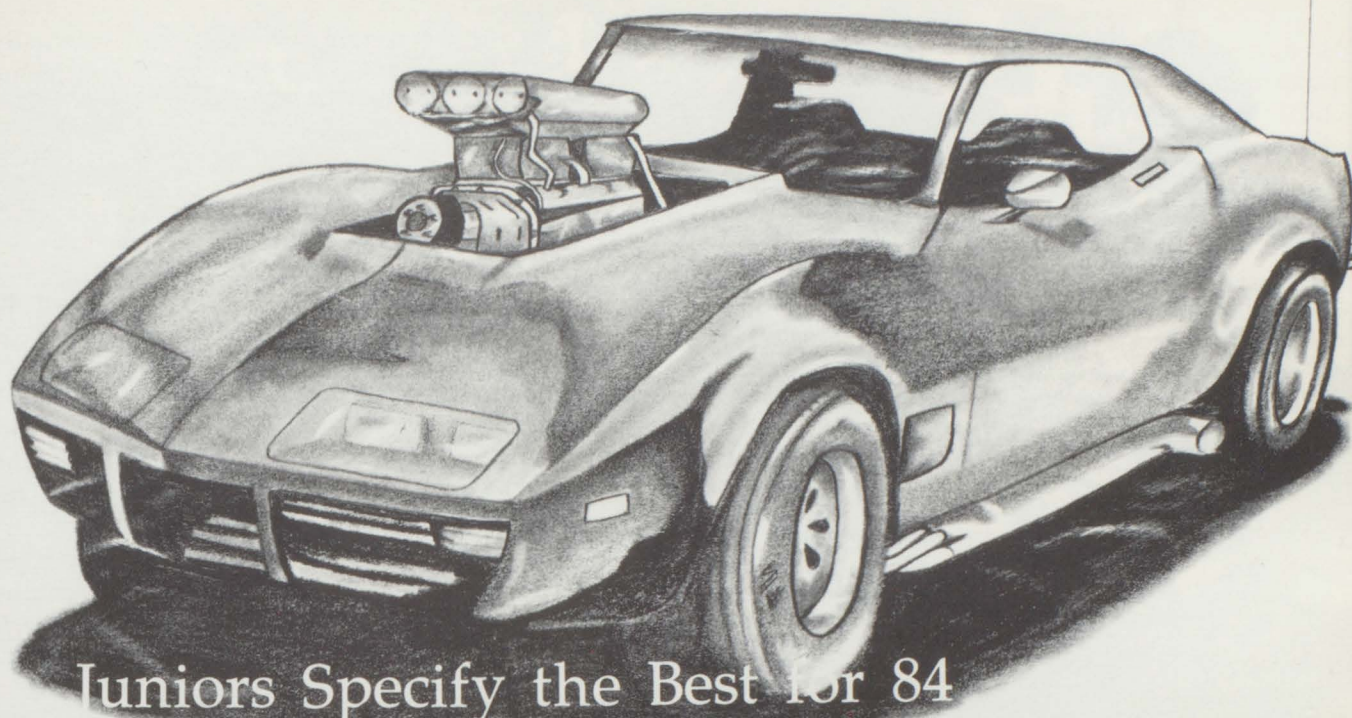

Ozzy won this one, too.

"New Music" Group

Best—Michael Jackson won this. His album was also the #1 album in the country.

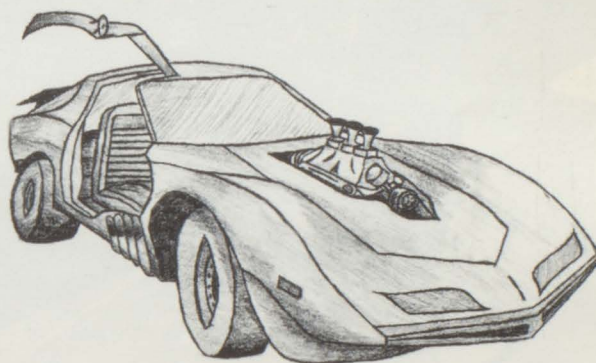

Dead Last

The Musical Youth was voted worst.

Juniors Specify the Best for 84

Tony

Concert

Best—Joe Louis should be proud to have housed this popular group, Journey.

Dead Last

Although it was a sellout, the Ozzy Osbourne concert was voted the worst concert.

College

Best—Go Blue! The University of Michigan was voted number one by the Junior class. It was followed by a close second, Michigan State.

Dead Last

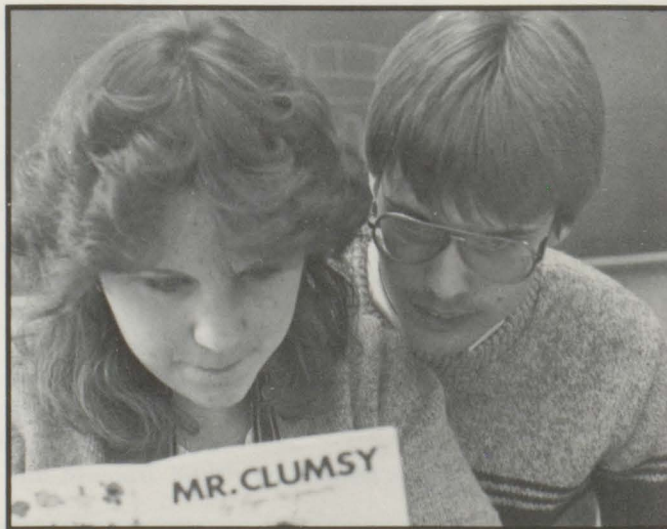

Of course the Ohio State Buckeyes.

Entertainers

Members of Mrs. Donovan's Speech Class pause to entertain our photographer. All obviously enjoy their speech class very much. In the front diagonally were: Chris Matts, Carol Jefferson, Herb McNeice and Joe Rankin. Middle: Brian Durham, Ila Bankston, and Tina Mcabee. Third row: Eric Bodley, Aaron Hauenstein, and Jeff Lamonica.

Finding time to relax from their busy schedules were Laura Oakes and Jason Sattler in the second photo on this page.

Big Reds Get Into Jazz

The Jazz Band is a new addition to the extra-curricular activities for the 83-84 school year. They get together after school to practice. The Jazz Band consists of trumpets, trombones, saxes, and drums. The group is fairly small, but the sound is fantastic. Band Director, Mr. Clark worked hard to make practices rewarding for the Jazz Band.

Piano accompanist Mike Halamka rounds out the instrumentation for the jazziest group at Port Huron High. With Seniors like Mike Halamka and Bryan Fleishman providing leadership for the group it won't be long before a really fine sound will be flooding the halls after school.

Members of the Jazz Band are also members of the Honors, Cadet, and Varsity Bands. This wide range of abilities should provide a unique sound.

Below, Junior Diane Blake consults a health department nurse on some do's and don't's after her Rubeola shot.

At right, Freshman Paula Sweeney has mixed feelings about her Rubeola shot.

Far right, the "gun" and many other various weapons lie in waiting for the next Big Red victim.

Measles Give Big Reds the Sting!

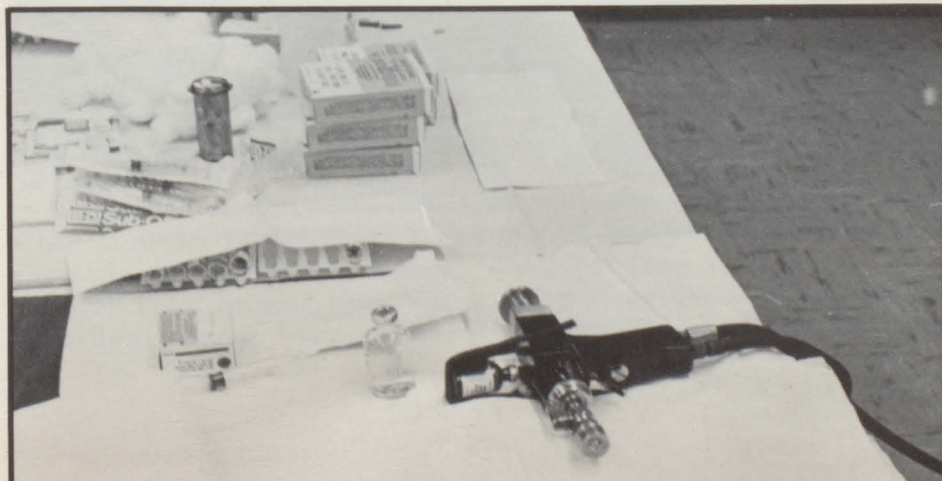

What is one thing all students in the Port Huron Area School District will remember from the 1983-84 school year? What upset the whole mid term exam schedule? Why of course, the Rubeola outbreak.

All students were informed that if they were not properly immunized they would have to stay home for fourteen days and miss their exams. Most students elected to bear the pain and get their shots at the "clinic" set up in the choir room by the St. Clair County Health Department. The Health Department offered free shots to everyone who came in to be immunized. Health Department nurse Sandy Stirzinger said that most students were a little nervous about getting the shots "because most of them haven't had shots since grade school."

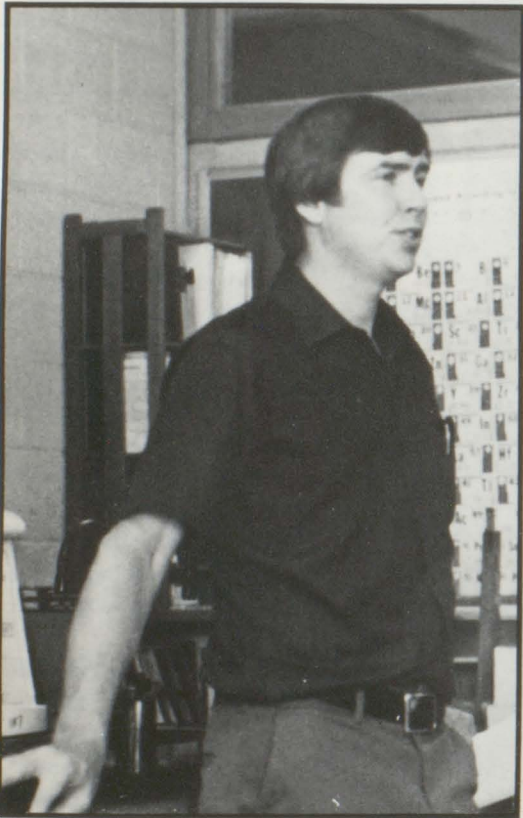

This outbreak became statewide news when the WDIV Channel 4 news crew came to Port Huron High for interviews with several students and the administrators. Registered Nurse Sue Hill stated she was glad that the news crew was there because "it is important that other communities know about this problem and have their children immunized."

Health officials speculated that this outbreak was started during a hockey game at McMorran Arena between the Port Huron Junior "Flags" and the Windsor "Royal Spitfires." Over twenty cases of Rubeola were isolated in Windsor. At mid semester break over thirty identified cases of Rubeola had been verified by the health department in Port Huron. Ultimately it appeared that many Big Reds were the victims of a double sting: Exams and Rubeola shots on the same day.

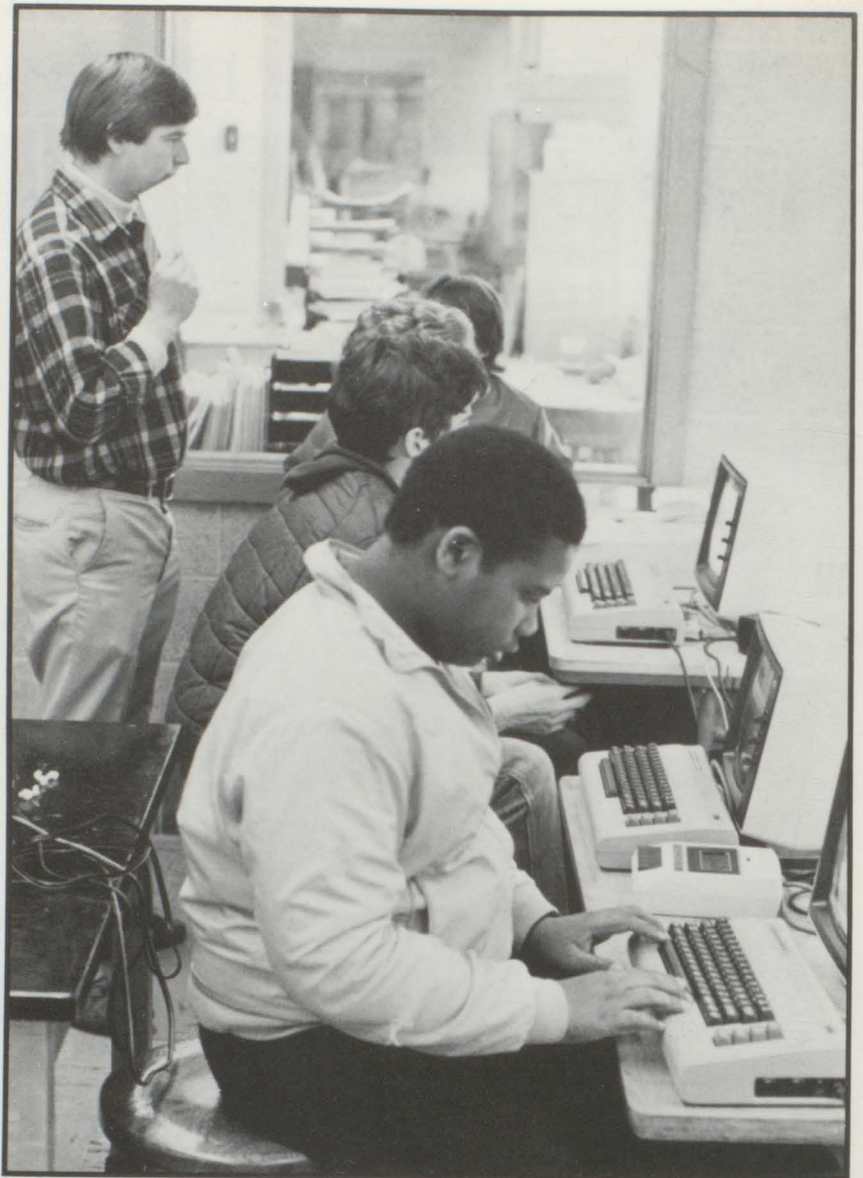

Learning Time

The Computer Club is designed to give those interested students and staff members an opportunity to learn about computers and exchange ideas about programming. Club meetings are held twice a month and officer meetings are held once a week. The Computer Club took field trips to SC4, General Motors Corporation, Lawrence Institute of Technology, and Diamond Crystal Salt Co. for demonstrations of computers and robotics. All members who attended these sessions learned many things and enjoyed themselves as well.

Bobie Jones, Keith Graham, Andy Frizzle, Debbie Stein, Laura White, Renee Schmidt, Brian Kelly, and Bryan Fleishman.

At left Advisor Mr. Ask explains the program for the week. Afterwards he helps Bobie Jones, Joe Hernandez, and others debug their programs.

Skiers Enjoy Great Season

Stylish DECA Club

The Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) is an organization whose programs of leadership and development is designed specifically for students enrolled in Distributive Education—a program of instruction which teaches marketing, merchandising, and management.

DECA held a Winter Holiday Fashion Show at SCCCC on October 26. Here, Andrea Button and John Palmer model some of the latest fashions which were donated by local businesses.

Launching Industrial Careers

Members of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) were: Chip Kaeracher, Brian Torry, Lyle Molesworth, Scott Cole, Mark Slowinski, Ken Jewell, Carl Wickings, Henry Hinrich, Paul Gagnier, Charles Michling, David Danver, Larry Tanton, Kevin Vollmer, Mike Carson, Mike Eastman, and Mr. Hunter.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America which is commonly known as VICA is the nations largest organization for trade, industrial, technical and health occupations students. There are 280,000 members nationwide.

VICA is designed to offer leadership, citizenship, and character development. This program helps students better prepare themselves for the labor market.

VICA competes annually on the local, state, and national levels. The United States Skill Olympics is the national level of competition.

Our local club is sponsored by Steven Hunter.

BOEC is introcurricular, which means that it meets during class time. It is part of the regular classroom program. The students compete in office skill areas on regional, state and national levels. They compete in two areas, clubsters compete in typing, filing, word processing, data entry, receptionists, accounting, etc. Non-cluster divisions are interview, business math, business English, computer literacy, spelling, etc.

BOEC raises money with candy sales, with this money, the BOEC members pay for their annual statewide membership dues. Mrs. Smith is the advisor of this group, which consists of 33 local members. Of these 33 members 24 will be going to regional competition. Regionals will be held in Flint. Those who are successful in Regionals will advance to State Competition in Detroit.

Providing Experience in Business

Officers of the Business Occupational Clubs of America (BOEC) were: Back—Sue Gerske, Randy Paul, and Sherry Graham.

Mathematical Magicians

The 1983-84 officers of the Math Club were: top row, Kathy Zarling—Secretary, Tony Cook—Historian, MaryAnn Kruse—President, Sandy Taylor—Treasurer, and Crystal Cleaver—Vice President.

As members of the Math Club, students must have a "B" average overall and have satisfactorily completed five semesters of advanced math classes. The Math Club is part of the National Chapter of Mu Alpha Theta. The high admission standards of the club has kept it one of the most respected in the nation, and members are proud to be active participants of this fine organization.

Ski-A-Thon

On the first Sunday in the month of February, the Ski Club members held their second annual Ski-A-Thon. Despite record low temperatures, they spent eleven hours downhill skiing, jumping, and ballet skiing. This event was held at Black Forest Ski Lodge. Each member of the club took pledges from neighbors and friends. The money raised was used to finance trips to ski lodges like Blue Mountain and Lake Placid, New York. All members had a great time. Each member going to Lake Placid had to raise $135 for the trip. The price was a bargain price.

The bands have a new director this year. Robert Clark a former teacher at Roseville High came to PH this year with five years of experience directing high school bands.

The BRMM practices very hard throughout the year. During football season practices are held three nights a week, during concert season Monday evenings are added to the schedule, and with all of the classroom time added it is easy to understand why the band is able to produce the magnificent shows they provide for us.

This year the band is participating in the Michigan State Bands Orchestra Association. This affiliation plus parades, pep bands, marching festivals, and concerts makes our band one of the most active organizations in the school.

Sounding Good

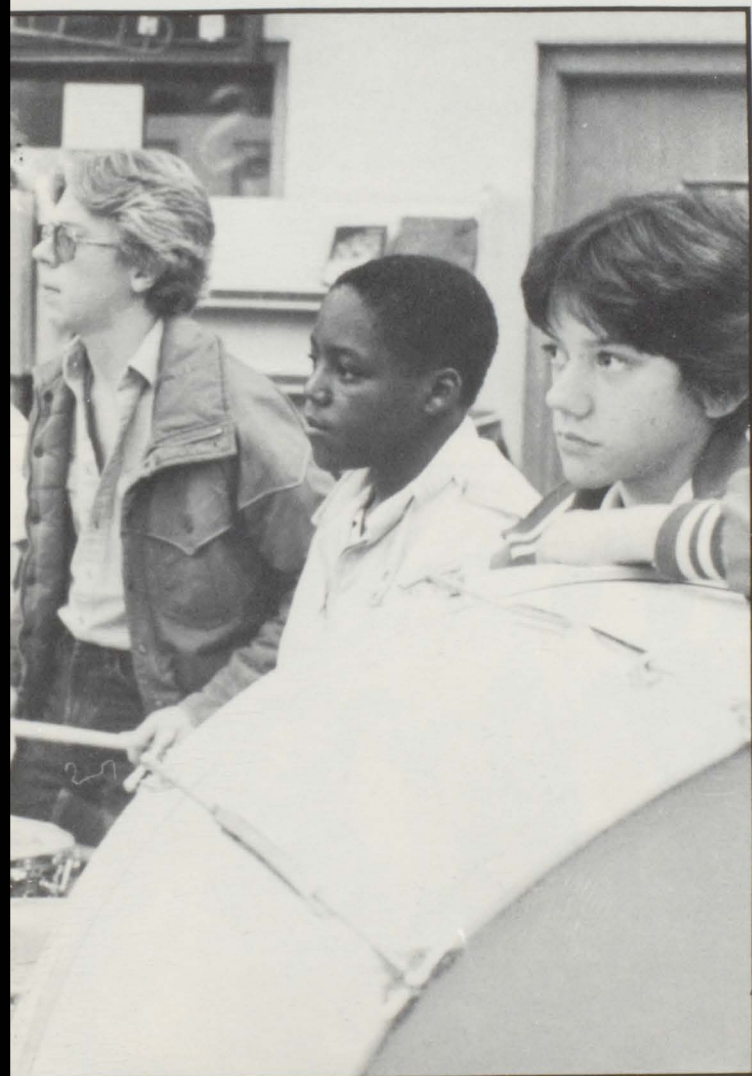

The bands had very busy schedules this year. The Cadet band is our hard working freshmen band. They performed at the Bandtastic along with the Varsity band and the Big Red Marching Machine.

The Big Red Marching Machine has been very busy! They started practicing in the summer and were ready for the football games. They performed the songs, "Sun Cat," "Sirocco," "Troika," and "The Greatest Love of All" under the direction of Drum Majors, Rusty Gurnsey and Junior Kelly Dawson. The Big Red Marching Machine performed in a parade in Kitchener in October, Watford and Alviston in November, and the Sarnia parade in December. All three bands worked hard and their performances were enjoyed by thousands.

Band officers for the 1983-84 school year were Top row: Julie VonHiltmeyer—Sec., Maryann Kruse—Treasurer, Kelly Dawson—Assistant Drum Major, Dave Langolf—Pres., and Russ Gurnsey—V. Pres. and Drum Major.

Sophomore drummers Steve Harris, Tim Lay, Corey Cates, and Ron Leverenz work diligently on a new piece for the Varsity Bands Bandtastic performance.

This years Varsity Clubs were directed by veteran staff members Mac Domke and Judy Biddle. The Womens Varsity Club known as the Script Club worked at numerous fund raising activities. One activity coordinated with the Booster Club involved serving tables at the sport banquet held to raise funds for our ever needy sports program.

The Mens' Varsity Club, known as the Block Varsity Club, also was well known for its fund raising raffles this year. When not working at fund raisers these active clubs could be found initiating new members or holding lively discussions.

T-Birds Flying High

The Thunderbirds continued their long tradition of bringing pride, enthusiasm, and precision to Big Red Country this year. Their splendid routines were always well received. They performed jazz, novelty, and kick routines throughout the year. They have performed at assemblies, football and basketball games, parades and competitions such as the Rochester and the Swirl and Twirl held in Niagara Falls, and special fund raising events for the YMCA.

"Practice takes time away that I used to spend with friends, family, etc. but I'm glad I'm a part of the team because I'm having fun this year," says first year T-Bird Andrea Button. Assistant Principal Mr. John Ufford, former director and advisor of the T-Birds remarked that "The T-Birds spread a lot of sparkle and enthusiasm throughout Big Red Country." The T-Bird motto "We strive for perfection" describes their attitude for 1984.

FLAGS FLAGS FLAGS

The Flags have always tried to uphold the standards of hard work, dedication, and pride. Each year, it seems, the combination of these three key ingredients make each performance seem better and better. "Last year, I didn't notice them very much. This year, all that is changing. They're not bad," says Junior Mark Stevens. Indeed, that is what everyone seems to be saying about the Display Flags. The girls on the squad though are told often by captain Kim Robinson, "Don't just do the routine, perform it." And they do.

Marching Machines Twirlers

The Majorettes are the twirling team for the Big Red Marching Machine. They perform at BRMM activities like parades and football games. This team puts in many hours of practice getting ready for each performance. They must be ready for all types of show conditions ranging from rainy parade routes to football fields covered with snow. Students here at PH seemed to enjoy this years performances. Freshman Tracy Ybarra said, "The Majorettes are not just a drill team twirling batons. They are much more. Their performances also include good dance steps."

Majorettes Twirling Team members were: Becky Bodley, Kim Phillips, Shelly Lisse, Sheryl Hutchinson, Sherri Halifax, and Sonya Johnson.

The hard work and dedication of the members of this squad reflect the care and dedication that this squad has for their Alma Mater.

All of this fine effort and togetherness would not be possible if the Majorettes sponser, Cheri Seaman, wasn't so interested in twirling.

A New Look

A Tom-A-Hawk can occasionally be spotted roaming the hall in her black pants and red sweater with a monogrammed "Tom-A-Hawks" logo. But this is merely their casual outfits. During performance their stage is brightened by their vivid red and white skirt outfits and streamers. Long, hard hours are spent after school inventing and practicing their excellent drill routines. Indeed, the Tom-A-Hawks are a major part of the Big Red marching Machine and the maturity of our students.

Service—Scholarship—Dedication

The National Honor Society is a very active and is known throughout the community. Fund raising projects consist of candy sales and the annual fashion show. A Christmas tea is held where teachers and students mingle and discuss news of the day. The NHS also helped the Salvation Army's Christmas Toy Shop for the needy of our community. At the end of the year the annual induction dinner was held for candidates recently inducted into the National Honor Society. Mr. Verran, the advisor for many years has made the society what it is today at PHHS.

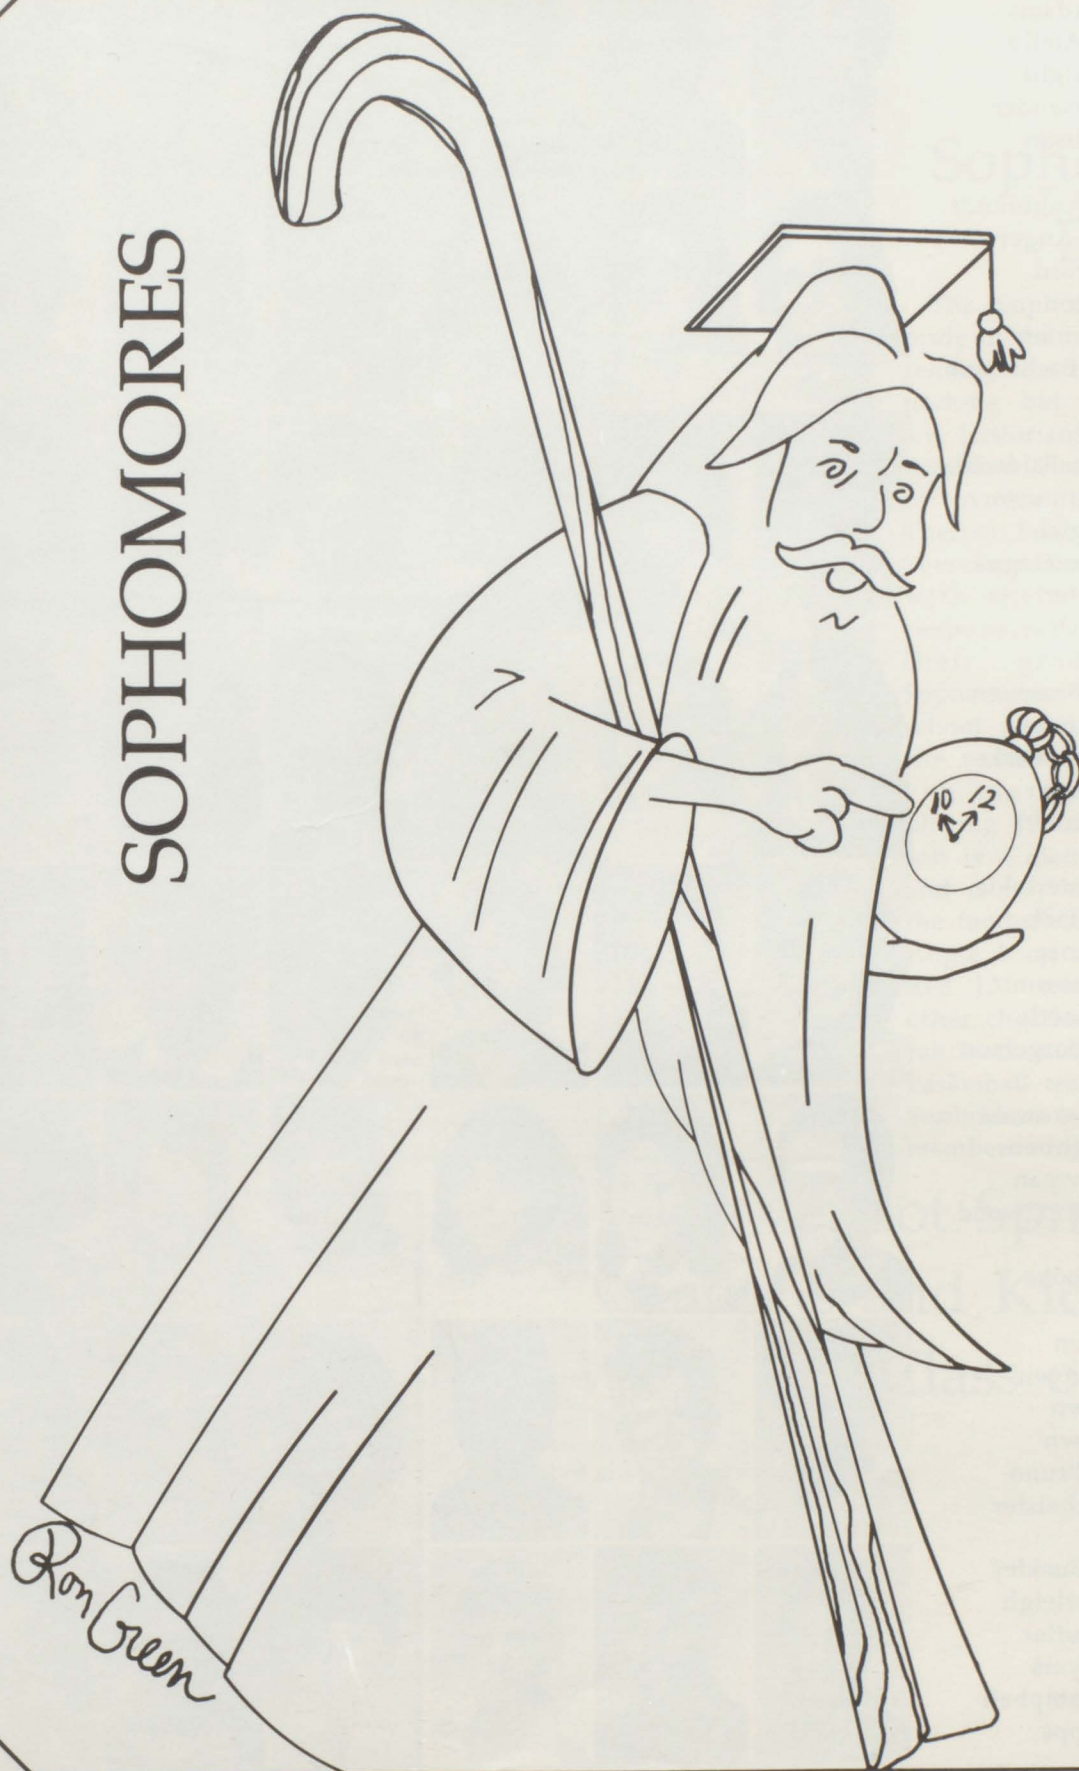

Officers of the NHS; Tony Edington—Historian, Sue Artman—Secretary, Mary Ann Kruse—Treasurer, Mr. Verran—Sponsor, Colleen Sweeney—Vice Pres., and Julie VonHiltmeyer—President.

Teacher, Mr. Larry Moeller Superintendent of Schools and Mr. Roger White Director of Secondary Education discuss educational programs at the Christmas Tea.

Sophomore's Best

Dejavu! Didn't I Just See You . . ? ?

Few people passing Tim and Tom Spear could tell you which was Tim and which was Tom. If you haven't guessed why yet it's because they're identical twins. They may look alike but according to Tim, their personalities are very different. "Tom is more aggressive and more outspoken. I'm quiet and kind of laid back." The twins preference in music is similar with Prince and Michael Jackson being their favorite musical artists. Both brothers played on the Big Red J.V. football team—Tim playing corner back and Tom playing safety. Each are also talented receivers. Tim's favorite foods are tacos and Tom's gourmet delight is a Big

Mac. When asked what they wanted to do in the future after school, Tim said he would like to join the Air Force and Tom would like to go on to play football.

Impeccable Tastes

Sophomores are known for their impeccable tastes in clothing. Everywhere you look you see a Sophomore wearing the newest fashions. Hooded sweatshirts, pastel sweaters, long sleeved surf shirts and the ever popular T-shirt are the "in" clothes this year.

Usually, the shirts have a design or a saying on them. Some shirts have ducks or frogs on them while others have boats or pictures of tropical islands. The most common shirts this year were the Big Red T-shirts worn by all Sophomores with pride. Whatever the fashion Sophomores keep up with the times.

Favorites of '86

Favorite Soft Drink

"Coke and smiles go together."

Favorite Shoe

For several years Nike shoes have been popular. Nikes are #1 in the Sophomore class.

Favorite Album

The number one album of 1983 was also the favorite album of the Sophomore class, Thriller.

Favorite Group

The Sophomores liked Heavy Metal and their favorite group was Quiet Riot.

Favorite Song

Michael Jackson's number one smash hit, "Beat It" swept this category.

Favorite Movie

The Sophomore class enjoys tear jerkers. Terms of Endearment was the favorite movie of '83.

Favorite Afternoon Show

The fact that Laura is back with Luke took General Hospital to the top of this category.

Math or English

Sophomores prefer prefixes and predicates to angles and formulas. English is #1.

Favorite Sport

The Sophomores prefer football over any other sport. Go Big Red football team!

Study! Study!

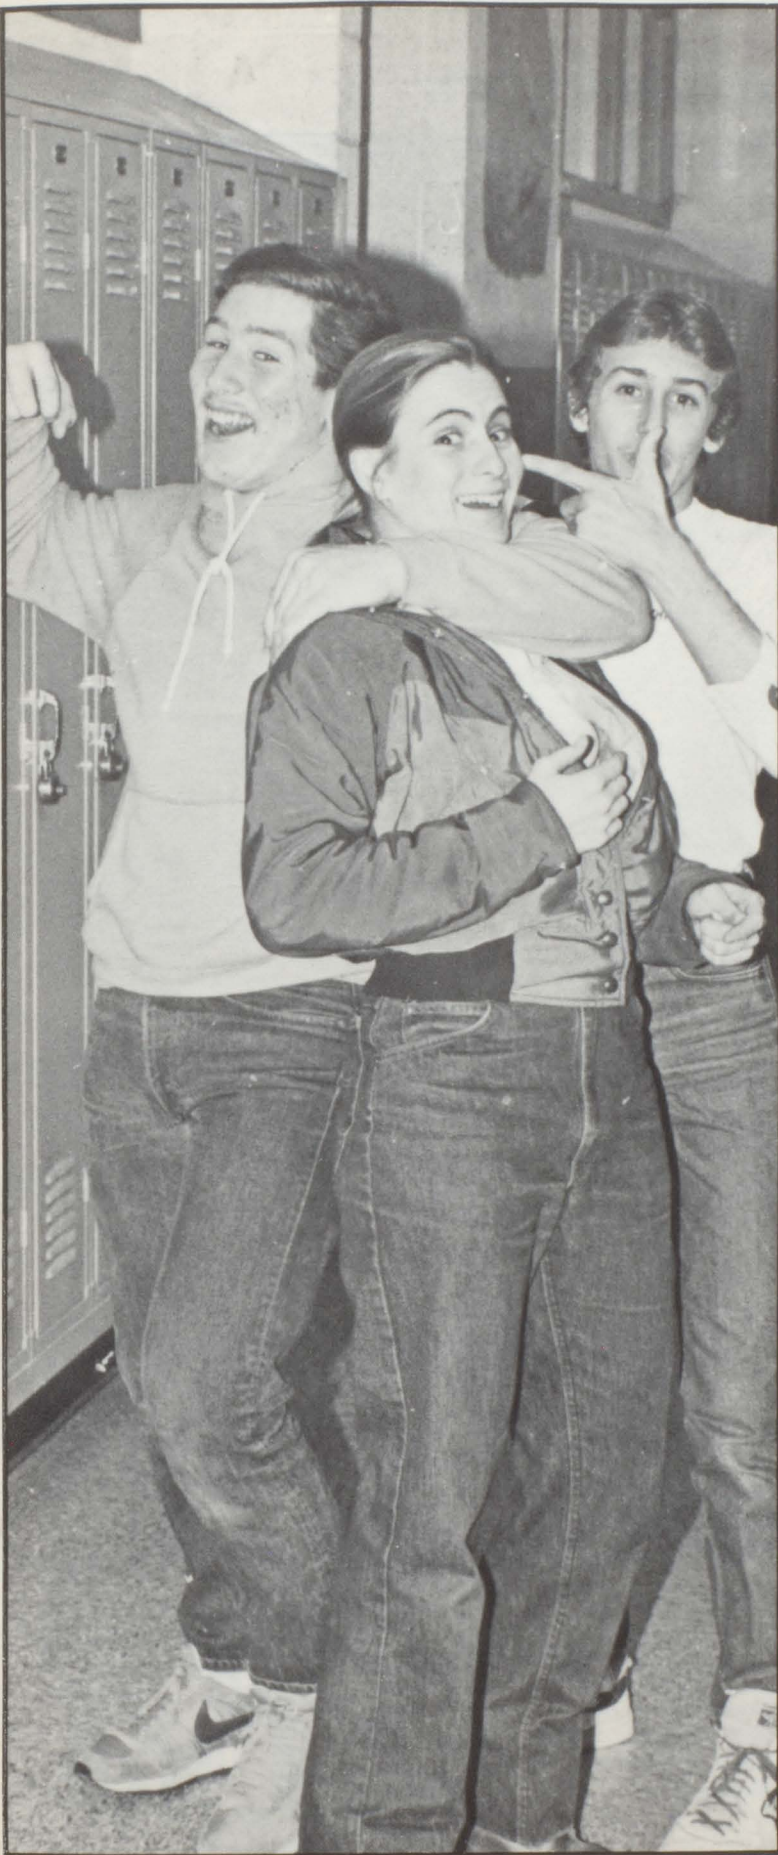

At PH sophomores learn that grades are a very important part of school. This year students were challenged by increased homework assignments and tougher academic standards. No doubt President Reagan's impact on education is being felt by all students at Port Huron High School.

Brenda Woods

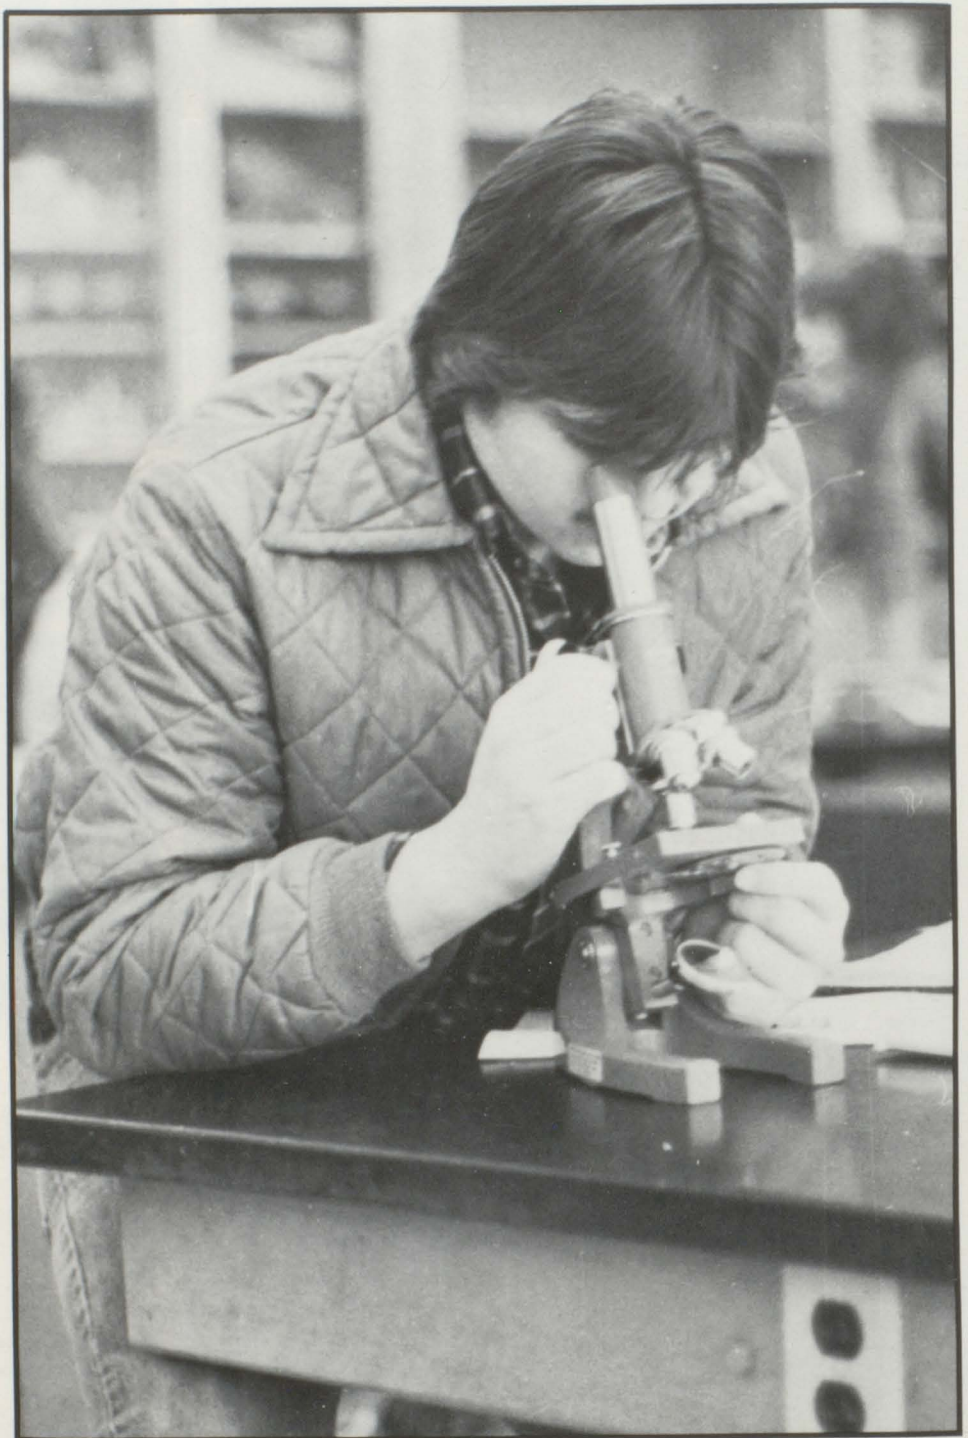

Sparkling Sophomores

Ms. Mary Jane "Bert" Adams has guided the class of '86 through high school activities the past two years. Her dedication has encouraged and led them to be one of the most energetic classes in this school. They owe her many thanks and hope to have the advantage of her guidance the next two years. Here's to you Ms. Adams!

Striving for Tomorrow

Sophomore Shelly Davis practices her routine on the balance beam before being graded on her performance. Biology student Leonard Sears observes the activity of his bacteria culture that he prepared from an agar mixture. In Weight Training, Sophomore Chris Schott works to improve his muscle tone and coordination.

The Sophomore class really knew how to have fun no matter where they were or what they were doing. Proving this was Kerry Mullins enjoying herself at a Sophomore float meeting. Gary Lakin and Matt Michaluk had fun watching the dancers at a Thursday dance. Amy Avers had fun while doing her nails for Physical Education in Mrs. Biddle's class.

Dedicated Staff

Office Secretary Mrs. Lewis prepares a list of upcoming events for the daily announcements.

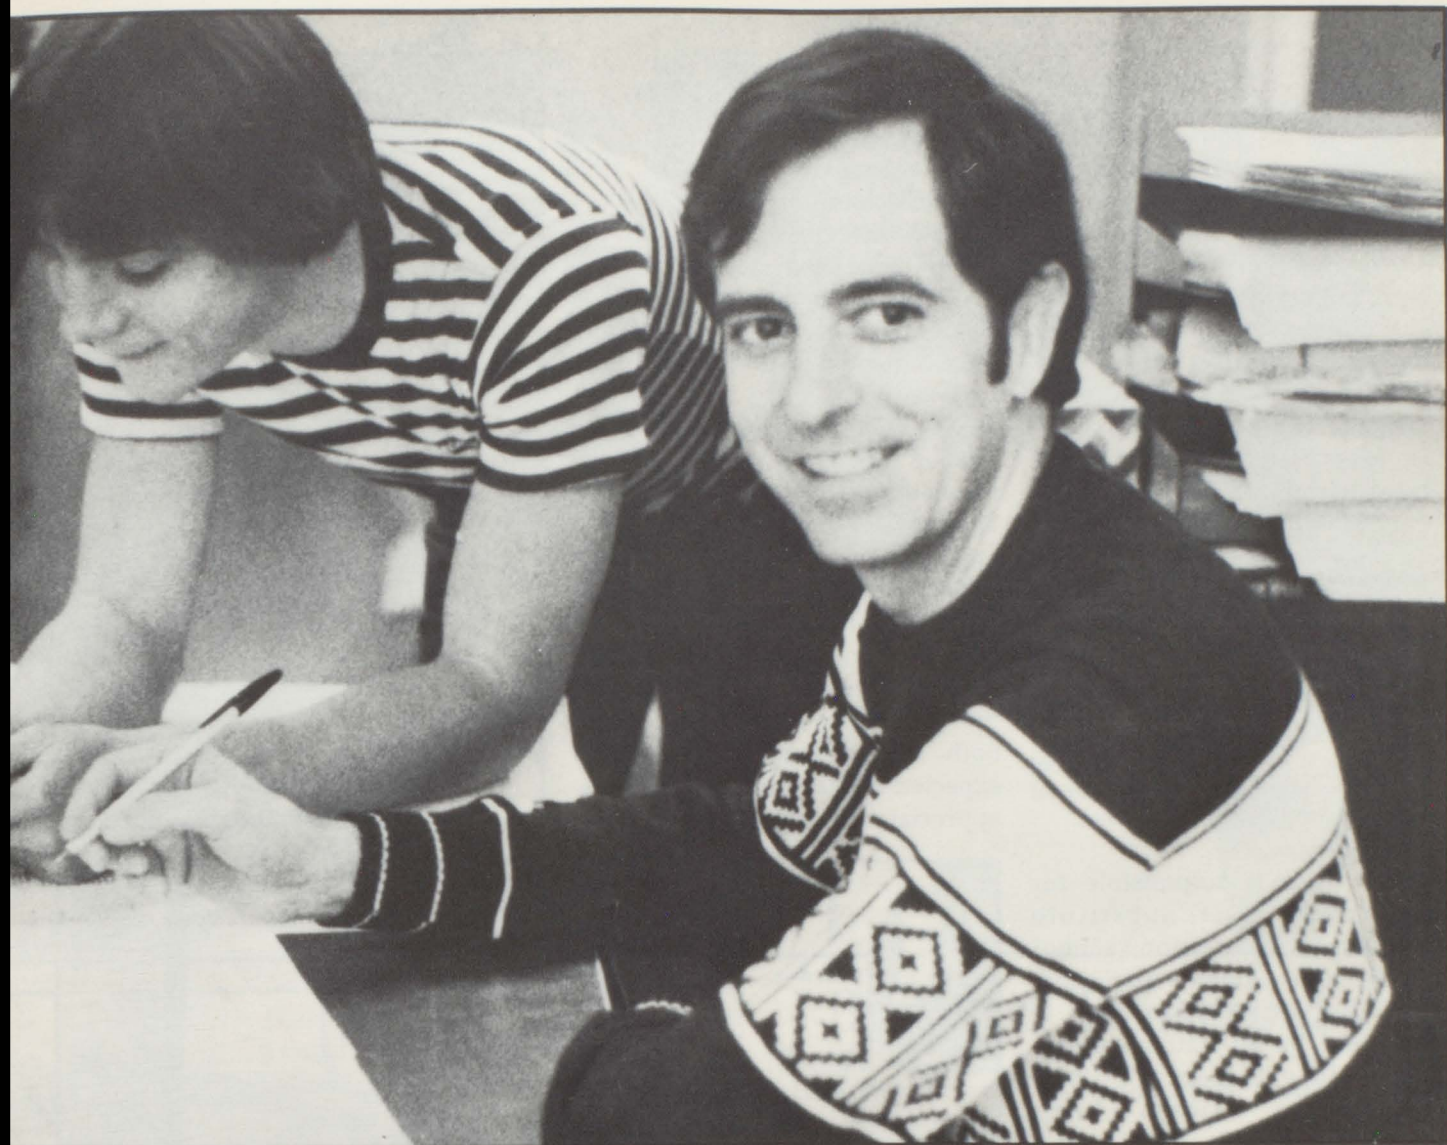

The 1983-84 Football coaching staff consists of, Back row: Mac Domke, Bart Misyak, Mark Law, Tom Miller, Front row: Dick Hillaker, Tom Rodenbough, Jay Weymouth, and Don Piper.

Assistant Principal, Mr. Ufford works at filing a new student transcripts.

The staff at PHHS is an exceptional one, not only in their daily duties, but also in the way they devote their free time to students after school. Besides the hours spent in lesson plans, and correcting papers, staff members work with students as the advisors of various clubs, organizations, and sports teams. Although students may not always express this appreciation to the staff, they are thankful for their help. Without our dedicated staff, Port Huron High would not be the fine educational center it is.

Mr. Hissock explains a math problem to Freshman Brett Conant.

Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Larry Moeller on a recent visit to PHHS takes time out from his busy day to tour PHHS.

Library Secretary, Mrs. Bowers works diligently filing library cards.

Administrators

Our assistant principals Mr. Richards, Mr. Ufford, and Mr. Lyszak work very hard to overcome the problems of students, faculty, and parents. They create "Big Red" spirit and pride. They are supportive of all efforts to provide a comprehensive education for all students. Their zeal creates harmony at PHHS.

Below: Mr. Ufford checks official school documents. He is responsible for the majority of official reports.

Mr. Lyszak and Junior Stephanie Keeney have a discussion about a school matter between classes. During a normal school day many students are visited.

Mr. Ufford is responsible for all certified staff, substitute teachers, transportation, school records, and student discipline. Mr. Ufford's professionalism is recognized by all staff members. Mrs. Biddle remarked, "Mr. Ufford has always been supportive of me, has backed me, and always follows through on school matters."

Mr. Lyszak's responsibilities include all budget matters, building activities, graduation, operational personnel, and student council. Mr. Dias a social studies teacher at PH remarked, "Mr. Lyszak has a concern for student learning and makes decisions that will positively impact on student learning."

Mr. Richards is responsible for counseling, curriculum, and all computer related matters.

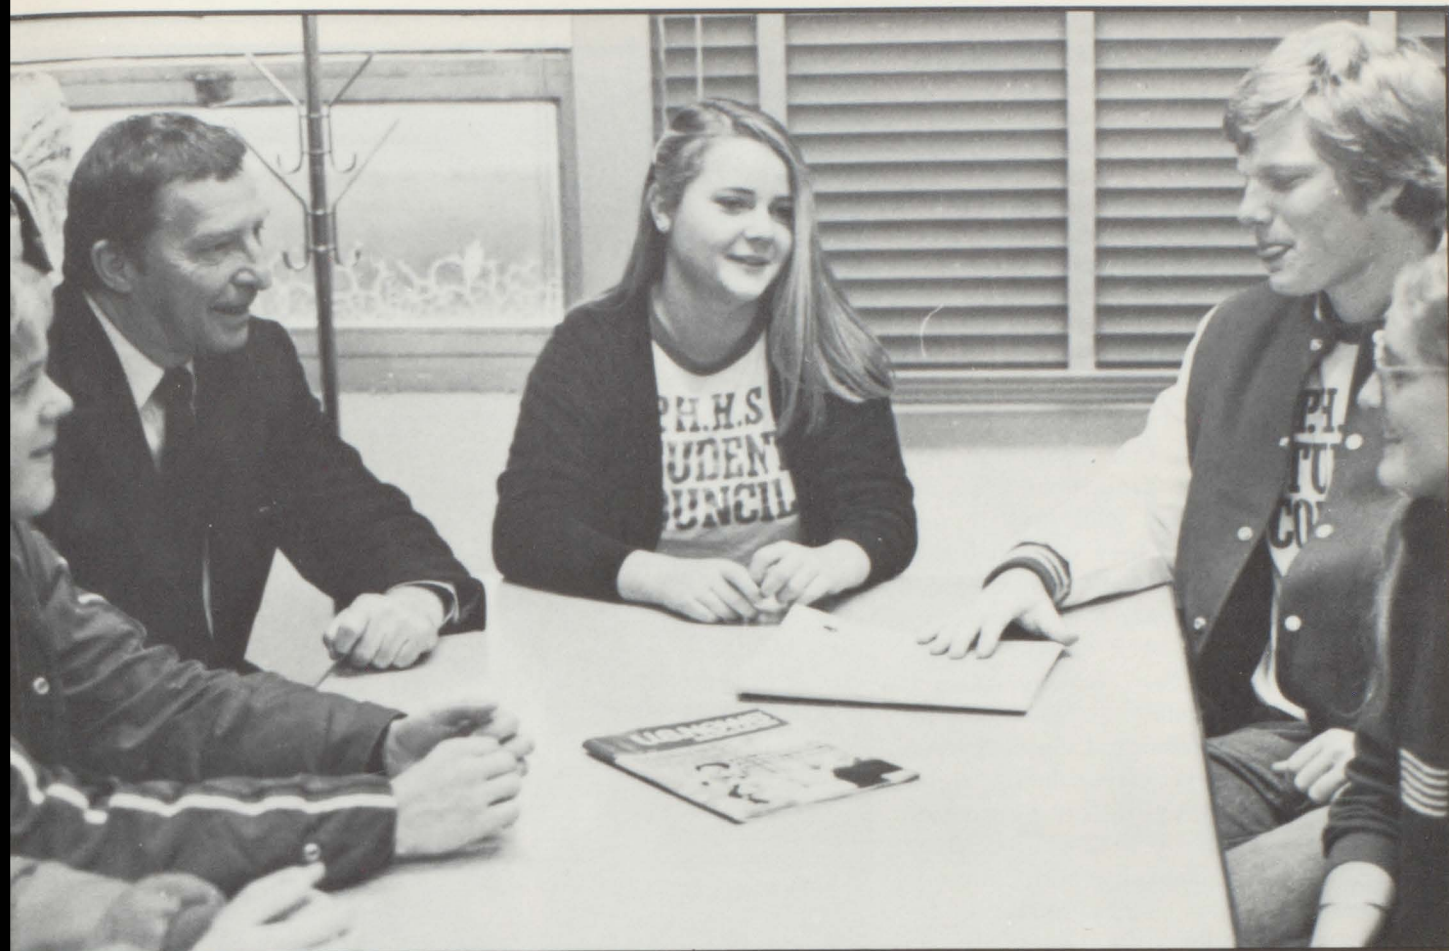

"He's doing a good job and relates well with students," stated Social Studies teacher Mr. Charles Lutz.

Mr. Richards background as a former Big Red student, PHHS teacher, and Science and Math Department Chairman gives him an edge in his position.

Twice retired as an all area track coach Mr. Richards can still be found working at all Big Red track meets.

His no nonsense attitude is both respected by students and expected by faculty. His work is appreciated by all.

Big Red Principal

"Just looking at him—demands respect!" Matt Clough, yearbook editor.

"He is professional; he expects professionalism; he gets professionalism from his staff." Barb Donovan, English Department, PHHS.

"The biggest 'Big Red' of them all!" Coach Senn, Math Department and Varsity Golf Coach.

"I feel that the administration of PHHS is very supportive of all school programs. Never have I gone to the administration with a problem that has not been taken care of." Mr. Semelsberger, Department Chairman.

Mr. Wydrzynski meets with our foreign exchange students, Tomi Siltamies, Friederike Sandt, Stephan Seidl, Ingrid VanErman, and welcomes them to Big Red Country. Below, Mr. Wydrzynski and Mr. Martindale are examining floats before the homecoming parade. All the fun and competition at Homecoming is the result of Mr. Wydrzynski's efforts to give all Big Reds a chance to preserve the heritage and traditions of PHHS.

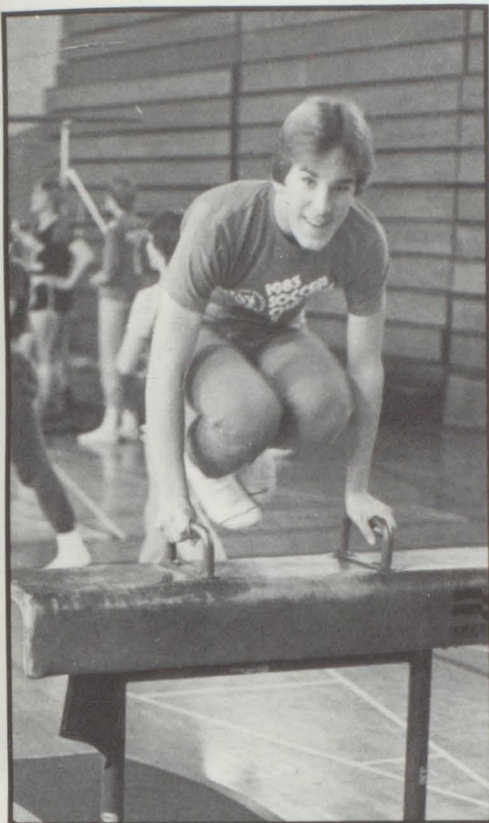

Guidance Staff

PHHS should be proud of our counseling staff. Our counselors are one of the best groups in the area because they work well one on one with students and they work together as a staff to best meet the needs of our school. This year Mrs. Trapp, pictured right, has been named "Counselor of the Year" for Secondary Schools in the state of Michigan, by the Michigan Personnel Guidance Association. Mrs. Wheatley, below right, was described by fellow counselor Kirschner as, "A real professional who is well liked by both students and staff." Mrs. Bailey, pictured below with Junior Angi Gross, "Brings a diversified and well rounded background mixed with in depth understanding into counseling." remarked Counselor Eppley. Mr. Frost, Mr. Eppley, and Mr. Kirschner complete our fine counseling staff at Port Huron High this year.

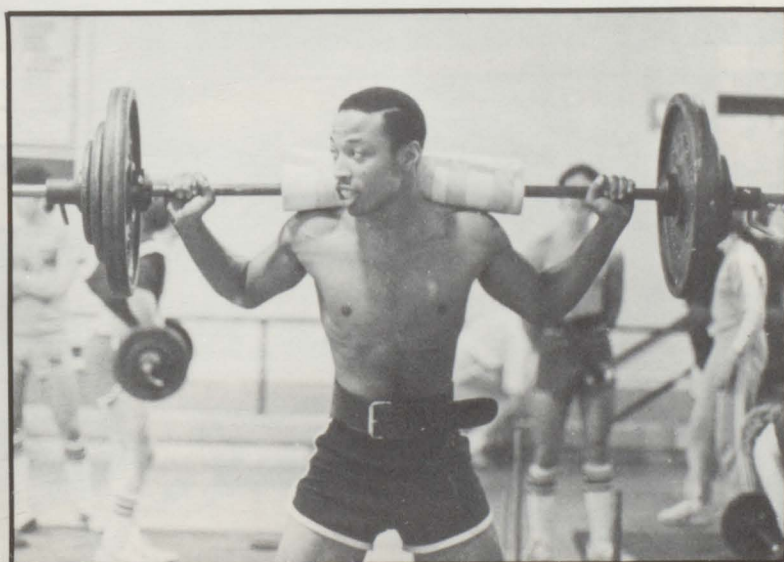

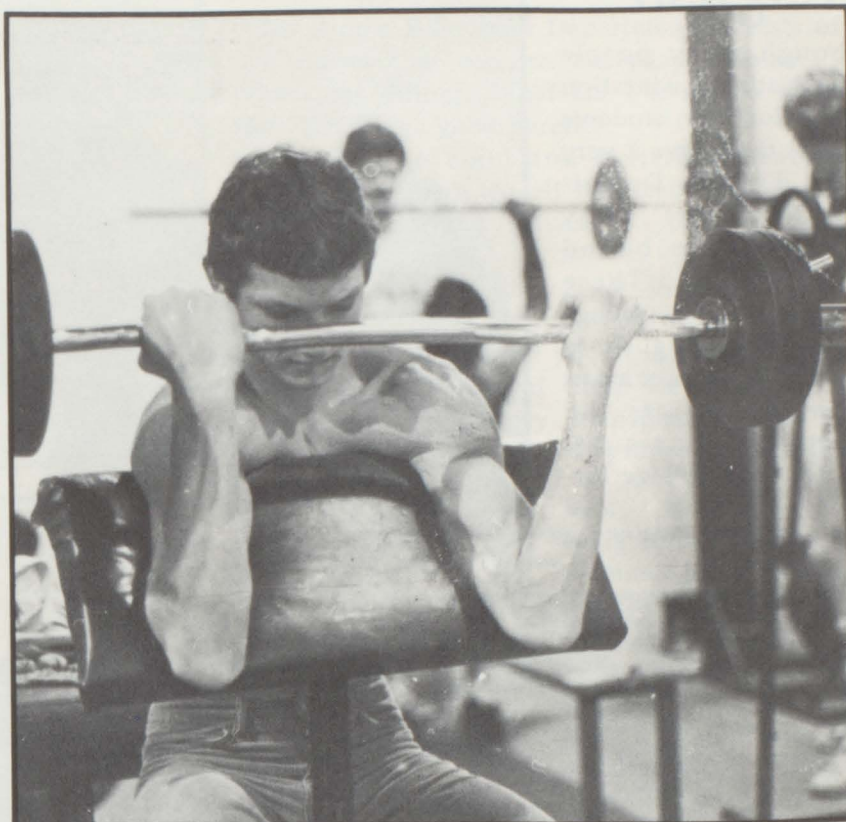

Not All Sweat & Tears

Physical Education is not only a requirement in ninth grade, but also leads to good health. In tenth grade, you have several options. Leadership Training, Weight Training, Aerobic Conditioning, and Recreational Sports are just a few examples. Junior year, even more choices are presented. Some popular choices are Gym Assistant, Intermediate Weight Training, and Advanced Silo-Weight Training. For all you fitness conscious Seniors, Advanced Weight Training, and Aerobic Conditioning are great opportunities. This year, Mr. Semelsberger served as the Department Chairman for the Athletic Department.

English

Although many people feel the National education level is below par, students at PH feel they have a very efficient English Department. There are many crowded college bound classes offered. These courses range from College Prep Freshmen English to Advanced Placement English for Seniors. AP English is a course designed to study college level composition and literature. This course gives the well-motivated Senior a chance to earn college credits. Other college prep courses include Advanced Composition and Research Techniques, and College Prep American Literature. Also offered are many electives including Speech, Broadcasting, and Creative Writing. English provides a world of communication.

Department head Dick Chapman, Mrs. Elliot, and student John Thayer focus on three typical English situations.

What's Cooking?

The Home Economics Department consists of elective classes that concern everyday problems like—What's for dinner? What am I going to wear? and How can I be a good parent?

A class like Food and Nutrition teaches the student to prepare a well balanced meal along with learning nutritional values and how to balance a budget.

Clothing and Textile classes instruct the student on how to wear, make, and select their clothing.

Learning to be a good parent is covered in courses like Family Living, and Child Development. Other courses such as Money Management and Leisure Skills help students better prepare themselves for the world of tomorrow.

Business World

The Business Education program offers a wide range of opportunities for all students. This year course offerings included a range of options from Marketing to Data Processing. Since March of 1983 the Business Department has had 4 CPT word processors in operation. Each student in the vocational office programs will have four weeks to work on word processors. This skill will help the student when entering the job market.

This year Mr. Jerry Miller has joined our Business Department. He moved to PH from Port Huron Northern. This year he is teaching General Business and Typing.

The Department Chairman for Business is Mr. Floyd Belt who does a fine job coordinating the activities of the Business, Industrial Arts, and Home Economics Departments.

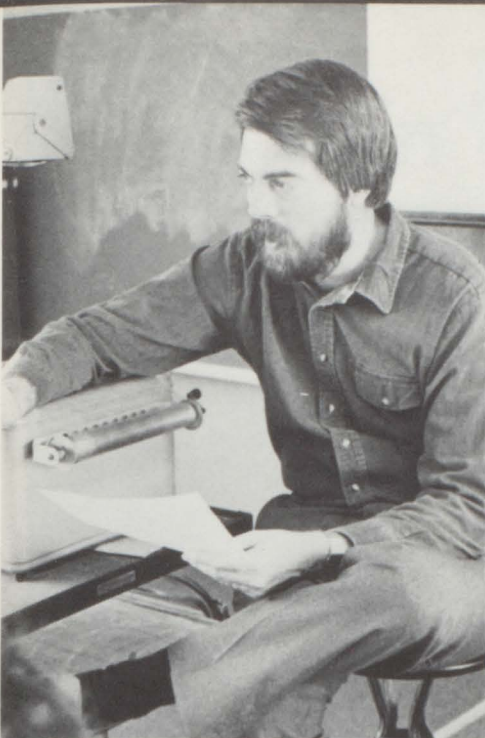

Perhaps one of the most popular classes in the Business Department this year was typing with fifteen sections of Typing I, Typing III, and Personal Typing offered.

Above Junior Tami Carter consults with Mrs. McLean about an Office Clerical problem. After solving the problem Tami returns to her desk to continue her calculations and problem solving.

Mr. "Kermit" Winters amazes his Data Processing, Bookkeeping, Record Keeping, and Typing classes with his gorgeous green body as he gets into the spirit of Halloween.

$$A^2 + B^2 = C^2$$

The Mathematics department consisted of various courses ranging from General Math to Advanced Math which is a preparation for calculus. A student preparing for college may take a total of 4 semesters of Algebra, 2 semesters of Geometry, and 2 semesters of Advanced Math. "The math department is one of the most outstanding departments in the school. The experienced teachers work hard to update the present system." said Dept. chairman, Mr. Semelzberger.

The students, as well, feel the department is efficient. Junior, Ellie Keyser said "The teachers are qualified to teach the courses they do and many things can be learned under their guidance. Many students also feel the Math courses offered in the department are a good preparation for College. Juniors, Michelle Pelc and Pam Hurt said, "The assignments given are a challenge that will prepare us for the future." Senior, Todd Lawson who has 4 years of College Prep Math feels, "The teachers are qualified to teach the subjects offered." All in all the math department offers a very good high school mathematics program.

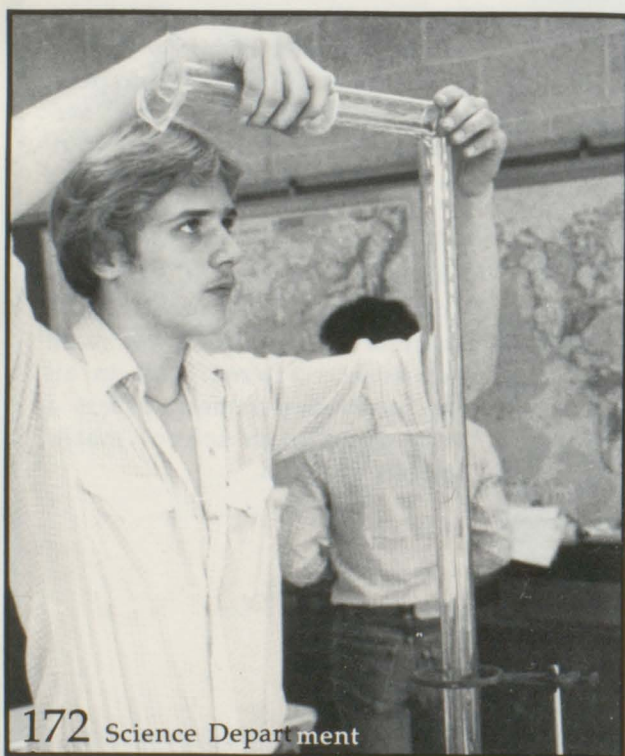

Science Moves with the Times

The addition of Computer Programming this year gives PH a three semester computer section. The prerequisite for Computer Programming is Computer Science. Computer Science is a one semester course, which involves the functions of computers and some programming. Computer Programming is a two semester course that does an in depth study of programming, where students mainly use computers for problem solving.

Also offered are a wide range of courses from Physics to Photography. Physics, Chemistry and Advanced Chemistry are courses offered mainly for College-bound students. Discovery Science is a course dealing with all aspects of science. Earth Science is mainly investigations dealing with the earth and the space around it. Horticulture is the study of the science and art of growing plants. Outdoor Education is a class which meets two hours a day to study Biology and Ecology. Photography is a course designed for students interested in Photography as a hobby or possible career.

These courses present a well-rounded department that "gives every student the opportunity to develop their ability to the highest possible level," said Mr. Semelzberger, Science Department Chairman. "The Science Department offers courses which prepare you for problems in life. These classes are taught by qualified teachers who assign problems that make you think." Bryan Fleishman.

Biologist Bethany Fistler stirs her agar solution for her Bacteria culture assignment.

Earth Scientist Dave Patterson examines an experiment waiting for the outcome.

Social Issues of the 80's

Port Huron High School offers a wide variety of Social Studies courses. The required classes are Civics, U.S. History and P.O.D. (Problems of Democracy). Mr. Neimi, a teacher of P.O.D. explained "POD exposes students to practical problems and responsibilities they will encounter after graduation." Civics instructor Miss LaVoy said Civics, "Has a basic requirement of placement of countries and the governments of these countries. It also is a preparation for U.S. history and P.O.D. classes." Mr. Owens said U.S. History is required because, "You have to know where you have been in order to go on." Besides the required subjects, alternative classes are offered. Some of them are Michigan History, Psychology, Futuristics, I'm O.K./You're O.K., Careers, and Geography. Brand new this year at P.H.H.S. is the class Law, Justice and the American People. Taught by Mr. Lutz, this class establishes problems solving, reasoning, use of logic, and emphasizes speech activities. It gives the students a basic background in all phases of laws, including criminal and tort laws.

Hey Tadd! Is US News and World Report that fascinating? It sure looks that way. Senior Tadd Klettner seems totally absorbed while doing his newspoints. Dave Lynch works to write a report on a city council meeting for POD.

Psychology teacher, Mr. Dias points out the differences between alpha brain waves and beta brain waves.

Fine Arts Department

This department consists of two major divisions, Performing Arts and Visual Arts. Performing Arts includes the Cadet, Varsity, and Honors Bands along with the Soprano/Alto Choir, Festival Choir, Chorale, Solo and Ensemble, and Tenor/Baritone/Bass Choir. Visual Arts include General Arts 1,2,3,&4, Drawing and Painting 1,2,3,&4, Ceramics 1,2,3,&4, Printmaking, and Fibers.

More than Books

What once was the library is now the Media Center. The Media Center has books, of course, but it also has many audio-visual materials such as movies, filmstrips, microfiche, magazines, and information files. So, as Mr. Domke put it, "The Media Center isn't just a place to read books, it is a source of knowledge at PHHS." Students use the Media Center for special projects for classes in the English and Social Studies areas. Unlike any other high school Media Center ours is used also for large group presentations.

During the school year a reading group was formed of PH students.

It met once a week during homeroom and used the slogan, "I'd rather be reading."

Mr. Domke and Mrs. Anderson are in charge of the library. Mr. Domke controls the A-V equipment and materials. Mrs. Anderson is in charge of the books and magazines.

Mrs. Anderson catalogs the new books in the Media Center, while Mr. Domke goes over a list of Audio-Visual equipment with two library aides.

Special People

The Special Education Department at PH consists of approximately 150 students and twelve teachers. These students have educational programs ranging from learning disabilities to the physically handicapped.

The teachers that work with these students allow them to work at their own pace. They take the same subjects as all other students at PH. Although they spend part of the day in the Resource room or POHI room, they spend most of the day in a typical classroom situation.

Teachers in this fine program come from a wide variety of backgrounds. Mr. Murphy chose to teach special education because, "I had a brother with cerebral palsy, and I wanted to get involved."

Mr. Miller teaches special education because "I enjoy working with young adults and I have something to offer them. Anyone is capable of learning with the proper discipline and care."

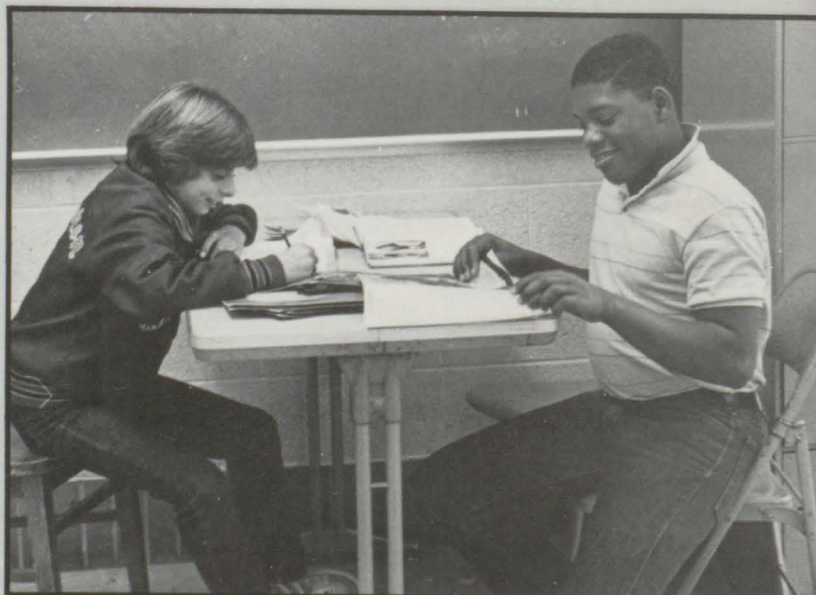

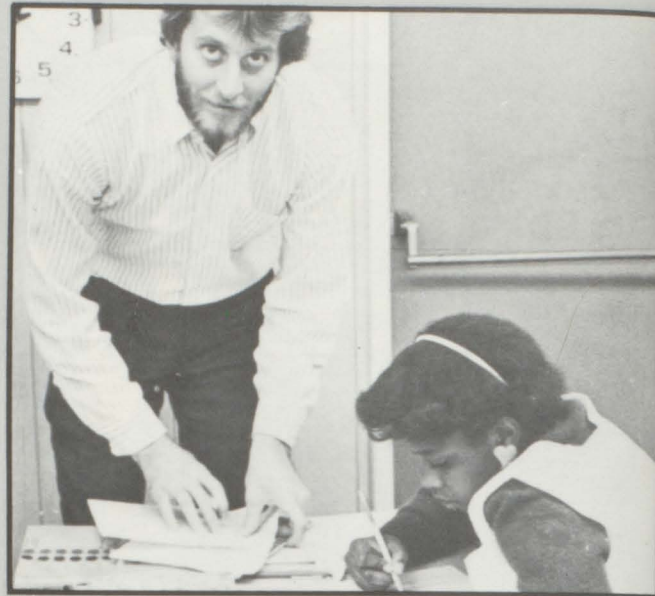

This year the special education program worked in five major areas with emphasis on mainstreaming all special education students into traditional classroom settings.

Students entering the Special Education Department do so on a referral only basis as determined by the Special Ed. Department. Tentative courses of study are agreed upon by students, parents, and the Special Education teacher. Counselors and administrators help determine the final course objectives for each student.

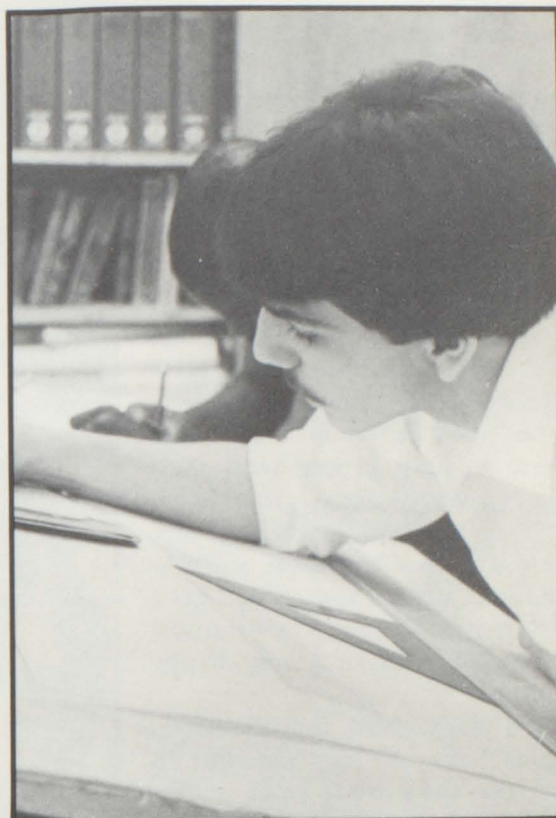

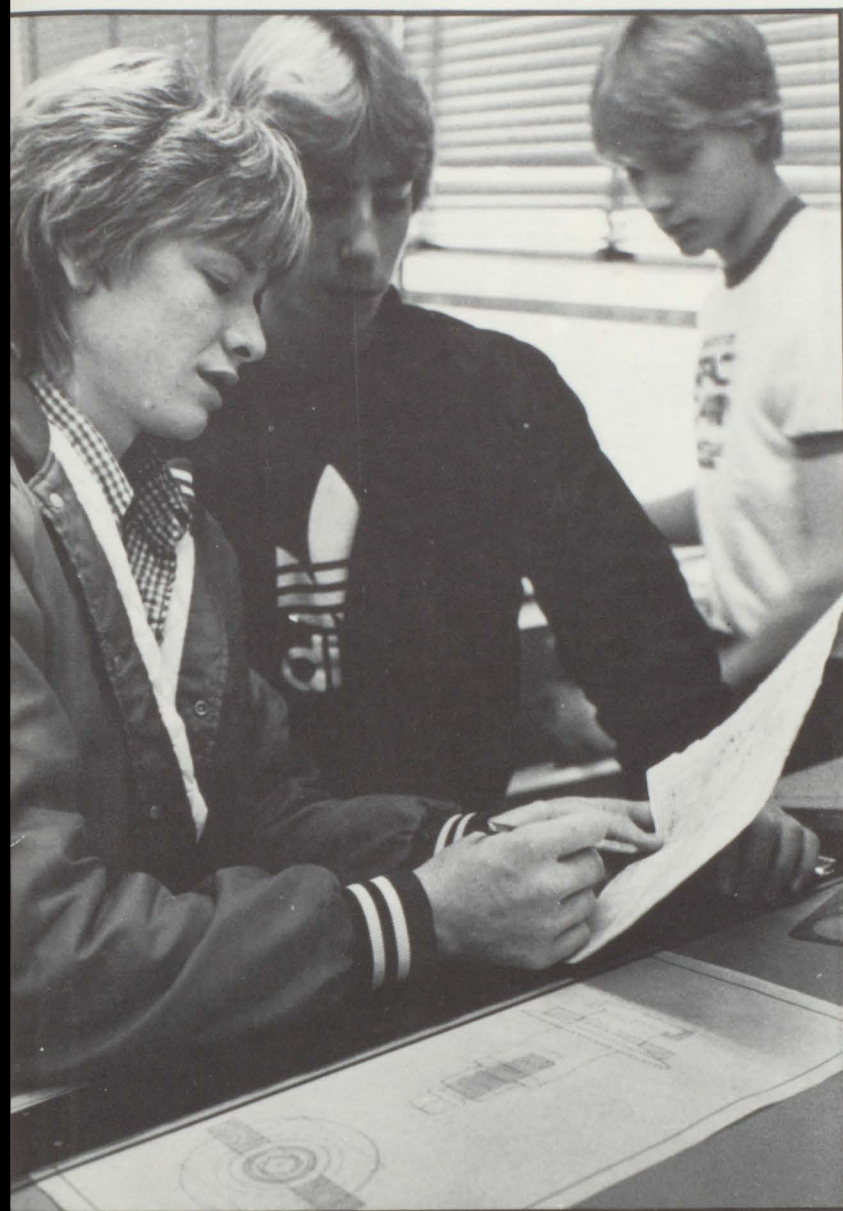

Mr. Moger pictured top gives Pam Peters help on her class assignment for the day.

Providing Career Opportunities

"Industrial Arts classes offer job skills that prepare students for the working world," stated Electronics instructor Mr. Naplin. Advanced Drawing student Todd Lawson said, "Architectural Drafting is a great class, especially if you have any thoughts of becoming an architect or a draftsman." Other courses that help students acquire job skills in the Industrial Arts Department are Metals, Woods, Electricity, Electronics, and Welding. With our fast paced, ever changing technological society, students need to be prepared for the future. Industrial Arts courses provide the groundwork for many career related areas. Under the guidance of Mr. Floyd Belt the Industrial Arts Department is structured to meet the needs of our students and community.

While working on an assembly drawing, Gordie Inch, Dean Kruger, and Mike Trapp discuss major revisions. Advanced Draftsman Jeff Lamonica works diligently on an elevation drawing. Vocational Welding student Larry Tanton works on a MIG Welding project in Mr. Hunter's class.

"Superb"

The secretaries in this school are friendly people. They type, file, and make change for people who need it. They are always there to help people with their needs.

They sell you football tickets, run off the white & yellow sheets, and they also give morning and afternoon announcements in a very happy way.

We might think that the secretaries have an easy job, but in reality they deal with many problems daily. In addition to the daily typing, filing, and accounting, the secretaries here are always willing to help students and fellow staff members with their problems.

Secretaries

The Port Huron High School secretaries for 1983-84 were: Back row—Mrs. Rankin—Counselor's secretary, Mrs. Zieg—school accountant, Mrs. Smith—Office secretary, Front row—Mrs. Bowman—Executive Secretary, Mrs. Lewis—Office secretary, Mrs. Wrench—Band secretary, and Mrs. Emlaw—Assistant Principal's secretary.

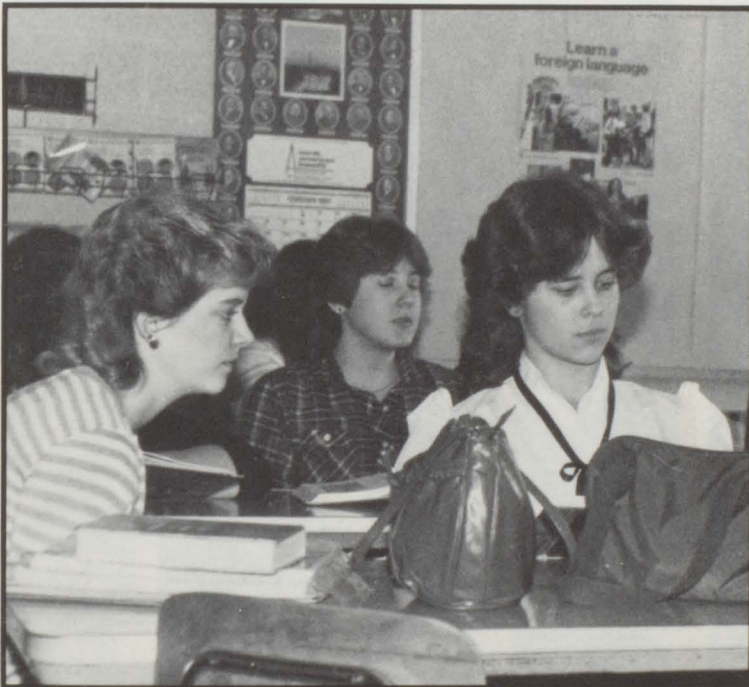

Parlez vous Francais?

Do you speak a foreign language? You may be asked this question when you have a job interview. Mrs. Smith, Port Huron High's French teacher said, "Foreign language is a good requisite for an office job because we live in a global community."

Six language classes are offered at Port Huron High this year. French, Spanish, and BiLingual Spanish classes are available to all students. These courses allow Big Reds an opportunity to understand their country more while learning about foreign cultures and the speaking of a foreign language. Go for it, try a foreign language next year.

French students Cherise Nichols (top), Jonine Hyde, Annette and Leslie Lohr (middle), and Katie Burgess, Denise Vojtosak, and Mary Bargiel (bottom), work on verb forms in Mrs. Smith's French class.

Joy Diggins acts as a travel agent in Mr. Owens Spanish class. The class was doing this to promote the idea of cultural exchange through travel.

Outstanding

What makes Port Huron High different? The staff!

As students at PH we feel the staff does an exceptional job and deserve credit for their many hours of work. Although we feel all these people are special in their own way, the following is a sampling of what some students think of a few of the fine staff members that will make PH memorable for them. This is the question we asked a random number of Juniors and Seniors, "Which staff member do you feel deserves special credit and why?"

Senior Charlie Friedland—"Mrs.

Bailey because she's a caring counselor and helps you with all your problems."

Senior Sandy Taylor—"Mrs. Whitaker because her advice helped me prepare for the future."

Senior Kim Goulding—"Mr. Domke because he gives you help whenever you need it."

Junior Mike Trapp—"Mr. Ploughoft because he helped me by giving me assignments that will help me with my career."

Junior Charles Whitman—"Mr. Ufford because he is understanding and helps you."

Jolly Ol' Charlie "St. Nick" Lutz creates a cheerful atmosphere at the Christmas Assembly sponsored by the Student Council.

Those Freshman Days

Senior Doug Jones tells Freshman Jennifer Miller of his Freshman year at PHHS when he and other Freshmen got lost trying to find their classes, bought elevator passes, and feared Freshman Kill Day. All those things, even though they didn't seem funny at the time, helped make their Freshman year at PH more memorable for all those who attended school in Big Red Country.

Most Freshmen don't know what their plans are going to be for the future. Many students have passed through the halls of PH before them and were faced with the same problem.

Most Seniors, like Doug, can look back at their Freshman years and see how far they have progressed. Freshmen should follow this advice: Enjoy high school while you're here, get involved in as many activities as you can, and make your years at PHHS exciting.

This survey was conducted by Freshman editor Tracy Ybarra to determine this year's favorites in everything from rock music to movies. Tracy's survey polled over 250 Freshmen in order to gain their feelings about the entertainment available in 1983-84. Their opinions certainly reflected the feelings of most people in their age bracket in the United States.

Frosh Fashions

Freshmen rapidly adapted to clothing trends at PH this year. Soutchay Sipaseuth models the latest in hooded sweatshirts. Of course his shoes are of Nike vintage. At bottom left Bob Gural displays the latest craze which was zippered sweatshirts. Zippers this year could be found running down the outside seams of jeans, on the arms of shirts, and on shoes. Finally Mike Grabbitt proudly wears the traditional Big Red jacket which has been a trademark of Port Huron High School's Big Reds for over fifty-five years.

Freshman, Soutchay Sipaseuth is one of the many art students who sit in the halls and draw during class.

Freshmen Course Requirements

Four mandatory courses and an elective are required of all Freshmen. English 1 & 2 is offered to General, Regular, and College Prep students. In the Mathematics Department, Freshmen are given their choice of General Math, Basic Algebra, and College Prep Algebra. Social Studies offers Civics and Advanced Civics. Girls, Boys, and Co-Ed General Gym and Athletic Gym are offered by the Physical Education Department. Freshmen must pass these classes to graduate. The rest of the students schedule consists of electives or other courses required for graduation. Some of the electives Freshmen can take are Typing 1 & 2, General Arts, Cadet Band, Choir, or a Foreign Language.

A Memorial

Charles (Chuck) Hagle, a Freshman here at PHHS, died unexpectedly October 14, 1983. Chuck had a twin brother Ron. They both played baseball on Little League teams. He was named co-most valuable player on his Little League team in 1981. He was born on August 20, 1968. Chuck was a lifelong resident of Port Huron. Chuck attended Chippewa Intermediate School last year and maintained a "B" average. He was only here at PHHS for a short while, but his friends and classmates will always remember him.

Preparing for the Future

The Freshmen Class has come a long way in 1984. They are preparing for the future by developing computer literacy as members of the Computer Club. Even though they couldn't take Computer Science as Freshmen Scott Trudell top, Bobie Jones bottom left, and Colleen Keltz spend many hours after school with the Computer Club learning the basics of Computer Language.

Businesses

The Staff of the Student would like to thank our advertisers. Without their continued financial support this yearbook would not have been possible.

Should your senior picture be different?

By all means your personal senior portrait should be different from everyone else's.

This may mean special lighting, clothing, and possess whatever it takes to capture you at your best and reveal your unique character. No assembly line, please!

At our studio we're prepared to put out that special effort to make your senior picture one that "captures the real you," and one that's worthy of this important event in your life! Call us and see the difference!

Nutritionists

Mrs. Arnold (left) and Mrs. Hughes (right) help prepare, distribute, and organize our hot lunch program at PHHS. Here they run our cash registers and help keep the lines moving smoothly.

The lunch program at PHHS is carefully balanced to fit into the basic food groups needed for a good diet. Some of the items served in our hot lunch program included pizza, hot dogs, hamburgers, tacos, spaghetti, chicken nuggets, and fish for the price of $1.00 per lunch.

Colophon

The Best of Times is the 78th edition of Port Huron High School's yearbook, The Student. One thousand yearbooks were sold, each containing 224 pages consisting of 16 color and 208 black & white pages. In printing this book both Malibu and Stymie type faces were used. The Pioneer method is used throughout the book, meaning that we shoot, print, and crop our own photos, paste our color, and design our layouts. The book was printed by the Inter-Collegiate Press in Shawnee Mission, Kansas. Last year's book won a first place award from the American Scholastic Press Association. The Student staff is a member of Michigan Inter-scholastic Press (MIPA) and Great Lakes Inter-scholastic Press (GLIPA). Editors, Matt Clough and Debbie Dobrowolski and Business and Finance Manager Laura Oakes attended a summer Journalism Workshop at Oakland University.

of copy sheets that are typed by the yearbook staff each year. (5) Editor Matt Clough constructs a difficult layout for one of the 224 pages in the Best of Times.

Study Time Leads to Special Times

Times to Remember

Everyone at Port Huron High will have had their own distinctive things to remember about the fun filled 1983-1984 school year. The yearbook staff of Port Huron High hopes that this school year will be a stepping stone to a better world for all who were a part of our Big Red community.

Herron Chisholm helped the team place 3rd in the 880 relay and Toni Portis placed 4th in the shot.

The Ending But Just the Beginning

P O R T H U R O N H I G H

As the last student files out of the building, the lights are shut off, and the doors locked, and the reality of summer faces all: The 1983-84 school year has come to a close.

The Best of Times have come to those of us this year who wished them. Many events such as our homecoming week, have livened our days and brightened our nights. Memorable moments included the many sports wins against Northern and other rivals, school dances, and pep assemblies.

We have all received a well-rounded education to better prepare ourselves for the future. Port Huron High School has provided us with both education and good times. But most of all, it has provided us with memories of the Best of Times.

The Court Street side of Port Huron High served as a backdrop for Big Reds: (Bottom Row)—Jeff Harrington, Mark Stover, Charlotte Paton, Todd McMillan & Cliff Johnson. (Middle)—Joe Blake, Dave Lynch, Ron Green, Kim Kingsbury, Joe Reuter, Ray Goodrich, Trish Barnum, Sachika Takeda, Laura Oakes, Doreen Gurske, Debbie Debrowolski, Christy Brenton, Laura White, and (Top) Jason Sattler.
